Welcome From Head Coach Bob Stoops

As the landscape of college football changes, one pillar remains a constant – the championship football tradition at the University of Oklahoma. From what our teams did 60 years ago to what they did just a few months ago, the goals remain the same.

We're proud of our history, but we don't rest on our laurels. Our focus is squarely on the next championship. The foundation the Big 12 has laid provides an ample blueprint to reach that goal.

Success here creates a desire for more - more success on the field, more success in the classroom and more success in life away from football. And the people here ask the right questions ... How can we achieve more? How can we do it better? How can we help you reach your goals?

The real winner is the student-athlete. This environment inspires greatness and encourages excellence. It does so with an eye on compassion and friendliness, qualities that have defined this university and the state of Oklahoma for many years.

I don't believe there is a better situation in all of college football than the one that has been created right here in Norman. There is an unmistakable energy and yet a comfortable pace that co-exist on this campus.

It is that atmosphere that allows us each year to strive for college football's highest goals, to prepare for that next championship. We know that success here is judged by championships and we wouldn't have it any other way.

Bob Stoops

THE STADIUM

Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is one of America's most recognized college football cathedrals. Situated on the east side of the Norman campus, this historical facility is the largest sports arena in the state and ranks among the 15 largest on-campus facilities in the nation.

SEASON OUTLOOK

Oklahoma welcomes the Big 12's two new members with trips to West Virginia and TCU as it also visits Texas Tech and Iowa State in conference play. OU hosts Big 12 foes Kansas State, Kansas, Baylor and Oklahoma Stat. The 107th OU-Texas game remains in the Cotton Bowl. Notre Dame's first trip to Norman since 1966 highlights the non-conference slate that includes UTEP and Florida A&M.

ROSTERS

Despite the loss of a group of talented leaders including All-American receiver Ryan Broyles, the Sooners return 46 letterwinners, 27 of which have started at game during their time in Norman. Fourteen of the 27 have registered double-digit start totals.

SEASON REVIEW

The 2011 season saw Oklahoma claim its 26th bowl title, defeating Iowa, 31-14 in the Insight Bowl. Ryan Broyles earned the program's 153rd All-America honor as Frank Alexander was the Big 12's Co-Defensive Player of the Year. The 10-3 season was OU's 33rd 10-win season, a national best.

SOONER TRADITION

History is one tough customer at Oklahoma. The tradition, so rich and so long-standing, is as daunting as it is impressive. To be among the best at Oklahoma is to be among the best in college football. Review complete statistics, award winners, player honors, letterwinners, bowl game tradition and NFL Sooners.

SEASON BY SEASON

The 2012 season will mark the 118th season of intercollegiate football at OU. The Sooners were playing football 12 years before Oklahoma became a state. Rarely has a football program and commonwealth enjoyed a more harmonious relationship that what exists in the Sooner state.

SOONER TRADITION

Great college football and the Oklahoma Sooners. For as long as anyone can remember, the two have been one and the same. Unlike some schools where tradition represents ancient history or others where it harkens back only a few years, Oklahoma's tradition is a constant accomplishment unfettered by eras or time.

The Sooners were playing football before Oklahoma became a state and have achieved a legacy so successful that more than contributing to the history of this great game, it defines it.

Why Oklahoma? Gerald McCoy, Tampa Bay Buccaneers

"The tradition and family atmosphere drew me into OU. My coach, Jackie Shipp, was the main reason I chose OU but after I got there the family atmosphere made me fall in love with it. I'm big on family and the family atmosphere was very apparent inside and outside the locker room with the team and the fans."

Most Successful Program of the Modern Era

Oklahoma is king in the modern era of college football. Since the end of World War II, the Sooners are the nation's No. 1 team, with more victories (577) than any other school and the best winning percentage (.763). Victories 1946-2011:

Greatest Players in College Football

Some of the greatest players in college football history have worn the Crimson and Cream. The University of Oklahoma has averaged more than one All-American per year since it began playing football in 1895. To date, OU players have earned the prestigious honor 153 times.

Five Sooners have been awarded the Heisman Trophy, including quarterback Sam Bradford in 2008, quarterback Jason White in 2003, running back Billy Sims in 1978 and running back Steve Owens in 1969. Running back Billy Vessels was OU's first Heisman winner in 1952.

LEGACY OF WINNING

What have you done for me lately? In Oklahoma's case, plenty. This is one of the hottest programs in all of sports.

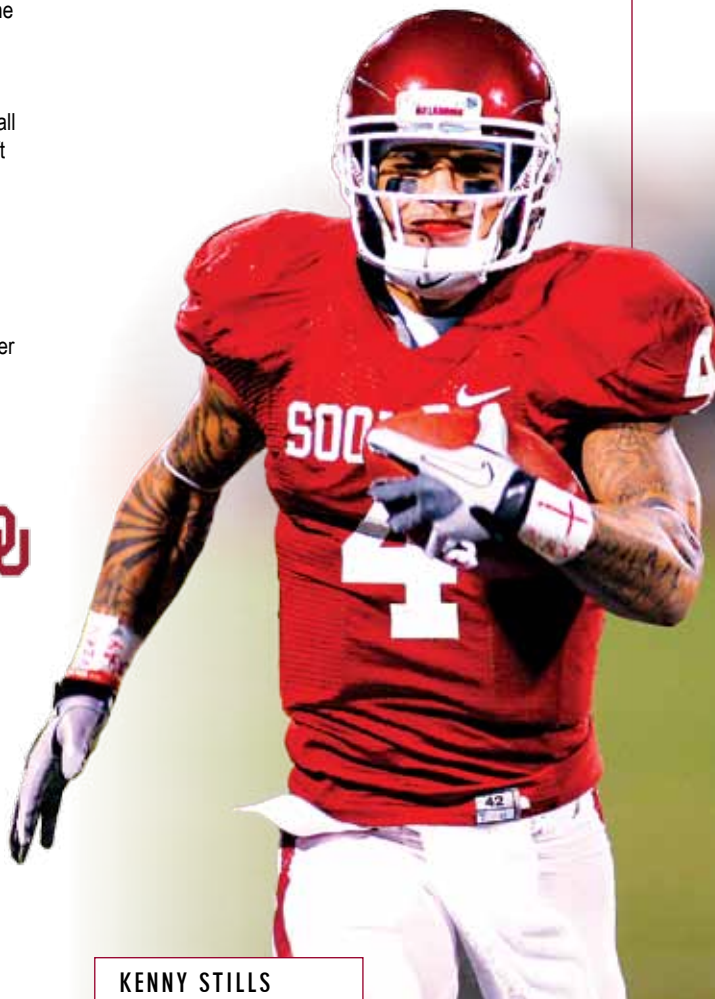

Oklahoma has played in four national championship games over the last 12 seasons, owns seven Big 12 championships during that time and has played in all four of the BCS games. OU also has turned out a list of award winners and draft picks so long that it taxes even the best memory to name them all.

Greatness begets greatness and there has been plenty of that in Norman lately. Now, from all corners of the country, the best players come to join a program of traditional success that is riding one of its biggest waves.

Statistics prove that Oklahoma is more likely to hit the 10-win mark than any other program in the nation with 33 10-win seasons including 10 of 13 seasons under Bob Stoops. The Sooners also lead the nation with 20 seasons with at least 11 wins.

125 Consecutive Televised Games

Imagine every game of your college career televised for family and friends back home. To a Sooner, that's no dream; it's reality. Every one of the past 125 OU football games have been on TV.

Thanks to ABC, ESPN and Fox Sports Net millions of viewers tune in to see Oklahoma on a regular basis.

Everyone loves a winner and the Sooners have been just that under head coach Bob Stoops. But OU's success also has driven ratings since the program's first televised game in 1952. In all, the Sooners have played 317 games on TV.

This is the center of the college football world and the television cameras are never far away.

Stoops Era Attendance Exceeds Six Million

Since Bob Stoops became the head coach in 1999, Oklahoma has drawn 6,112,172 fans to Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. Never has Sooner football been more popular with its rabid following.

Stoops' winning ways, which have yielded 77 victories in 80 home games, stoked the Sooner nation and have led to the expansion of OU's stadium by 9,347 seats. Even so, attendance has exceeded the listed capacity of 82,112 in 48 consecutive games.

In 2011, Oklahoma fans set a record for average season attendance (85,161). The number is typical of what has happened here in recent years. The top nine seasons for OU home attendance have taken place since Stoops arrived.

Stoops Leads Oklahoma to Seventh Title

In a 2000 season so richly laced with great moments, the one for the ages came in the national title game, a 13-2 victory over Florida State in the Orange Bowl. It has been called by some the greatest defensive effort ever in a championship game.

The national title season came just two years into Bob Stoops' tenure and just two years removed from a sub-.500 season. Along the way, the Sooners had thrilling wins over Nebraska, Texas, Texas A&M and Kansas State (twice), with only one of those contests played at Owen Field in Norman.

Headliners included QB Josh Heupel, who finished second in the Heisman voting, and big-play linebacker Torrance Marshall. The mark at the end of the season was an unblemished 13-0.

CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

Oklahoma is Championship Football

Nothing defines the competitive success of a college athletics program like a national championship. Oklahoma, with seven national titles sprinkled over four decades, is one of the very few programs that sets out each fall with the expectation and legitimate goal of pursuing the national crown. That pursuit rates as a lot more than just talk around here.

The aura is unmistakable, and it radiates from real and repeated success on college football's biggest stage. Oklahoma has claimed more national championships than any other Big 12 program.

The Sooners under Bob Stoops earned the program's most recent title in 2000 with an Orange Bowl victory over Florida State to cap an undefeated, 13-0 season. OU's other championships came under Barry Switzer in 1985, 1975 and 1974, and Bud Wilkinson in 1956, 1955 and 1950.

Oklahoma has played for the BCS title four times during Stoops' tenure.

Head Coach Barry Switzer

Barry Switzer led his Oklahoma teams to national championships in 1974, 1975 and 1985. He also won 12 Big Eight Conference championships and had eight bowl victories in 13 appearances. Switzer directed the Sooners on a 28-game win streak from 1973 (his first season as head coach) to 1975. When Oklahoma won the national championship in 1975, it marked the first time in history a team had won back-to-back titles more than once. In 1970, as an assistant, he convinced head coach Chuck Fairbanks to make the most significant and gutsy move in OU's football history, a switch to the wishbone offense.

BUD WILKINSON

Head Coach Bud Wilkinson

Oklahoma's 13th football coach produced teams that were 6-2 in postseason play, won the national championship in 1950, 1955 and 1956 and did not lose an astounding 74 straight conference games from 1946-1959 (72 wins, 2 ties). His teams still hold the modern record for consecutive wins by a FBS school with 47 straight victories from 1953-1957. After the 1947 season, the Sooners won 12 straight conference championships. In 17 seasons at Oklahoma, Wilkinson fostered racial integration and graduated players at an 87.2 percentage rate while becoming the eighth winningest coach in FBS history.

43 CONFERENCE TITLES

No Team Has More Big 12 Titles

Oklahoma won its first conference championship in 1915 and has since tacked on another 43. In other words, the Sooners average a conference title just about every two seasons.

That same pace has carried through the Bob Stoops era with seven league crowns in 13 years. That feat merits considerable respect. Under the previous Big 12 format, teams must first win a divisional crown over five opponents before advancing to meet the other divisional winner at a neutral site.

Seven Big 12 Conference Championships

Since the formation of the Big 12 Conference in 1996, no team has won as many league titles as Oklahoma. In fact, no other schools won more than three and six of the league members have yet to win their first. The most recent of OU's seven came in 2010 when the Sooners took down Big 12 North champion Nebraska, 23-20, at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas. The Sooners' other Big 12 crowns came in 2008 (62-21 over Missouri in Kansas City), 2007 (38-17 over Missouri in San Antonio), 2006 (21-7 over Nebraska at Kansas City), 2004 (42-3 over Colorado at Kansas City), 2002 (29-7 over Colorado at Houston) and 2000 (27-24 over Kansas State at Kansas City).

153 ALL-AMERICANS

If it's a college football season, the likelihood is that more than one Sooner ranks among the best players in the land. That was true in 1913 when OU produced its first All-American and it's true today when the rate of additions is so rapid that the total now outnumbers the age of the program itself.

One of college football's greatest programs has been built by some of college football's finest players. That's the natural result when talent meets coaching at a program with eye-popping facilities and great visibility.

Consensus All-Americans in the Big 12

University of Oklahoma players have earned consensus All-America honors 75 times in the program's history. No other school in the Big 12 Conference has produced more consensus All-Americans.

What is a consensus All-American? The NCAA officially recognizes selections from five All-America teams: The Sporting News, AP, AFCA, FWAA and Walter Camp.

A player is designated a consensus All-American if he is a first team selection on at least three of the five teams.

Ryan Broyles became the latest Sooner to add his name to the prestigious list as he received consensus All-America honors for the second straight year in 2011.

FIVE HEISMAN WINNERS

Eighteen Winners in Last 12 Seasons

For many years, college football has paused at the end of each season to recognize its finest players. The award names like Heisman, Outland, Thorpe and Butkus are woven into the fabric of the game as a tribute to the past and a beacon for the present.

The awards ceremonies attract the greatest names in the game, and of course, they attract and honor Oklahoma Sooners.

The road to the bright lights, podium and acceptance speech starts with great talent and hard work, common staples at OU. The Sooner program then provides the national stage on which players can be seen. The result has been an impressive collection of hardware.

Elite Program Prepares Players for Next Level

The league. Pro ball. The next level. It is the dream of every college football player. It is reality for many Oklahoma Sooners. Few programs in the country attract talent and prepare it to move on better than Oklahoma. Seven Sooners were tabbed in the 2012 NFL Draft alone giving Bob Stoops a total of 59 of his former Sooners drafted into the league.

OU plays pro schemes, has three coaches with NFL experience and employs a rigorous strength and conditioning program that is so effective that many of those who have gone on to professional careers come back to Norman in the offseason to continue their training.

Players with the ability and drive to make the NFL flourish at Oklahoma and leave here equipped to play football beyond their college days.

"They're actually the same things we did at Oklahoma. It eases my mind to know that there are things I have done before."

NATIONAL ATTENTION

Sooners at Center of College Football

Oklahoma is a household name due to the overwhelming media attention that hovers around the Sooners. Writers and broadcasters representing the nation's most recognized media outlets regularly interact with Sooner players and coaches and routinely spend time in Norman.

And when they can't come to campus, those same observers keep tabs on OU thanks to extensive television coverage. In 2011, all 13 Oklahoma games appeared on live television, including nine that were carried nationally or regionally on ABC or ESPN. The Sooners are at the very center of college football and the entire world is watching.

9

The popularity of the Sooners is evident in the immense amount of products and apparel purchased by fans. OU ranks ninth in its consortium in sales of licensed merchandise.

24

Over the past 12 years, ESPN's popular College Gameday production has broadcast on site from 24 of Oklahoma's games. That's an average of two games per season.

31

Sooner football is one of the most popular subjects for SI with 31 cover appearances. Since 2000, Oklahoma players have appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated 10 times.

35

More than 35 million people visited SoonerSports.com last year, making the official web site of the Oklahoma Athletics Department one of the top collegiate sites in the nation.

80

The Sooners have played in front of 80 consecutive sellout crowds at Oklahoma Memorial Stadium in Norman, including every home game of Coach Bob Stoops' tenure.

97

Over the past 11 seasons, 97 percent of Oklahoma's games were televised live (144 of 148 games). In fact, 125 consecutive OU games have been on TV.

Forty-five bowl appearances and 27 bowl victories have firmly entrenched Oklahoma among the most tradition-rich schools in America. The Sooners have become synonymous with postseason play at the highest level.

At a school where the bowl history is laced with games of historical significance, the last few years have represented another fabulous roll for the Sooner. Four times in the last 12 seasons, the Sooners have played for the national championship, eight times they have been in BCS bowls and in nine seasons they played in January games.

OU enjoys favored status among the bowl community, mostly for its tradition, but also for its fan following. Some 50,000 Oklahoma fans have ventured to OU bowl destinations over the last few seasons. Regardless of the location, Sooner fans flock to follow a bowl tradition that is as fresh as it is historic.

Head coach Bob Stoops has taken all 13 of his Oklahoma teams to bowl games during his tenure in Norman. Of the 13 games, four were National Championship bouts, eight were BCS bowl games and nine were in January. Stoops is one of just seven coaches to win three bowl games over the last three seasons.

The Sooners and their fans have enjoyed trips to Phoenix, San Diego, Miami, Pasadena, New Orleans and Dallas while playing in some of the most prestigious bowls in college football.

OU-TEXAS WEEKEND

Storied Rivalry at Cotton Bowl in October

The Oklahoma-Texas game, played each season at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, a location approximately halfway between the two campuses, is one of the country's most spectacular sporting events.

Staged during the State Fair of Texas, the contest is witnessed by a crowd perfectly defined by color – half crimson, half burnt orange – in an atmosphere that is arguably more unique than that found at any other game. This rivalry is one that marks time and gives players and fans alike experiences for a lifetime.

The Tunnel Experience

"From the top of The Tunnel that leads into the floor of the Cotton Bowl it looks like no big deal. All you can see is end zone. Then you start running and the world explodes around you. Your eardrums are pounded by the screams of 75,587 people and the blasts of the modified 12-gauge shotguns that the OU Ruf/Nek spirit group carries..."

"You feel the world shake and start to understand why every Longhorn or Sooner who has taken these steps before you can never seem to find the exact words necessary to convey what has just happened.

"You've just run down the tunnel at the OU-Texas game -- generally regarded as one of the greatest moments a college football player can experience."

Sooners Set to Perform in Norman

To understand a football Saturday in Norman, one must first understand what the sport means to Oklahomans. The Sooners were competing on the gridiron before this grand land moved from territorial status to statehood. Few college programs are more ingrained in their surroundings than the one at OU.

Game day at Oklahoma is about more than 80,000 fans witnessing one of the most historic and vibrant programs at one of the game's truly great cathedrals.

It is about pride for a great university. Indeed, it is about pride for an entire state. At Oklahoma, game day here represents football and a whole lot more.

Since the start of the 2006 season, Oklahoma ranks second nationally in home winning percentage at .973, holding a record of 36-1 in that span.

BOISE STATE - .974

OKLAHOMA - .973

5

Although OU just completed a stadium expansion, the facility operated at 104 percent capacity in 2011 -- fifth best in the nation. That means no empty seats for games in Norman.

13

The official capacity of Memorial Stadium is 82,112 but OU averaged 85,161 fans per game last season. That put the Sooners at No. 13 in the nation in average attendance.

16

37

The Sooners have 37 undefeated seasons at home, including 10 perfect home seasons under head coach Bob Stoops.

80

81

Oklahoma has won 81 percent of its home games at Memorial Stadium. Since the facility's opening in 1923, the Sooners are 360-79-15 at home.

What They're Saying: Perrish Cox, Oklahoma State

"Their fans, they've got wild fans. They do know how to get into a player's head, especially if you haven't played in a big game. You drop a pass, they're screaming. You drop a punt in pregame, they're screaming. It's kind of tough for a lot of young players."

Preparation Meets Opportunity

It would be hard to imagine a football program doing more over the last few years to enhance its facilities than OU. The $111 million expansion and enhancement of Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is perhaps the most noticeable upgrade, but it is simply the lead project in a plan that has impacted every facet of Sooner football.

A new locker room, a new indoor training facility, a new weight training facility, a new practice field and a new housing facility under construction are testaments to OU's dedication to providing the best for its student-athletes. Preparation routinely meets opportunity at Oklahoma. It does so largely because the Sooners have what they need to succeed.

5

Five regulation-size practice fields are available to the Sooners right outside their locker room: Owen Field, two grass fields plus indoor and outdoors artificial turf fields.

65

The ceiling inside the Everest Training Facility hangs a full 65 feet above the SafePlay Synthetic Turf surface. This allows for all kicking and throwing drills during practice.

74

On those rare days that the weather forces Oklahoma to practice indoors, the Sooners can move to the 74,000-square-foot Everest Indoor Training Facility.

75

Headington Hall, slated to open in the fall of 2013, is a $75 million housing project that will house nearly 400 OU students and student-athletes. The facility will be 220,000 square feet and five stories tall.

Championship Strength & Conditioning

The best testimony for the impact Jerry Schmidt and his staff have on Oklahoma football players comes from former Oklahoma players -- those in professional football. It's not uncommon for members of that select fraternity to return to Norman for part of their offseason training regimen. During their time in the Sooner program, they learned the quality of the strength and conditioning program.

Schmidt has been involved with three national football championships at three different schools. His success is no coincidence. Now in his 13th year at OU, he is recognized nationally as one of the best in the business, and the athletics department has surrounded him with facilities that give Sooner student-athletes the best opportunity to excel.

3

Jerry Schmidt has coached with teams that played in six national championship games. He has three national title rings from Oklahoma, Notre Dame and Florida.

5

Schmidt has worked with five Heisman winners, including Sam Bradford (Oklahoma), Jason White (Oklahoma), Danny Wuerffel (Florida), Barry Sanders (Oklahoma State) and Tim Brown (Notre Dame).

28

Schmidt has coached 28 NFL first-round picks including Sam Bradford, Gerald McCoy, Trent Williams and Jermaine Gresham all in the 2010 first round

38

No. 38 for the Cincinnati Bengals and former Sooner standout, Roy Williams, donated $100,000 to establish a new weight room in Oklahoma's Everest Training Facility.

59

During Schmidt's tenure in Norman, 59 Sooners have been selected in the NFL Draft including 12 first-round picks, not to mention three of the first four picks in 2010.

Big Names, Big Results

Pass oriented? You could make that case. Numerous records for both passing and receiving have fallen over the last few years and the single season passing mark was set in 2008. Run oriented? Maybe. After all, the Sooners rushed for more than 2,000 yards in seven of the last nine seasons. Well, which is it, passing or running?

At Oklahoma, the answer is both. While most schools dream of balance, OU is balance. While it's true that the 2,000-yard mark was exceeded in seven straight seasons under Bob Stoops, it's also true that the team has thrown for more than 3,000 in eight of the last 10 years.

And that balance creates opportunity for some of the best-known names in all of college football. It's common to see the ball in the hands of 10-15 players during a game. Many stay involved to the detriment of none.

Under Stoops, the Oklahoma offense, with its pro influence and varied formations, has produced:

QB

Three All-Americans, four Heisman finalists, two Heisman Trophy winners and every OU record holder in the passing game department.

RB

One Heisman finalist, one All-American, seven 1,000-yard rushers, Oklahoma's single season rushing yards record holder and OU's No. 3, No. 5 and No. 9 career rushers.

WR

Four All-Americans, three Biletnikoff Award finalists and OU's record holders in game, season and career receptions, receiving yards and touchdown receptions.

TE

Two Mackey Award finalists, one All-American and Oklahoma's record holder in touchdown receptions in a game.

OL

Six All-Americans, one Outland Trophy winner and two Rimington Award finalists.

Oklahoma has scored in 175 consecutive games, a streak that dates back to Nov. 7, 1998.

66

37

Oklahoma has averaged 37 points per game under Stoops. (6,396 points in 173 games)

25

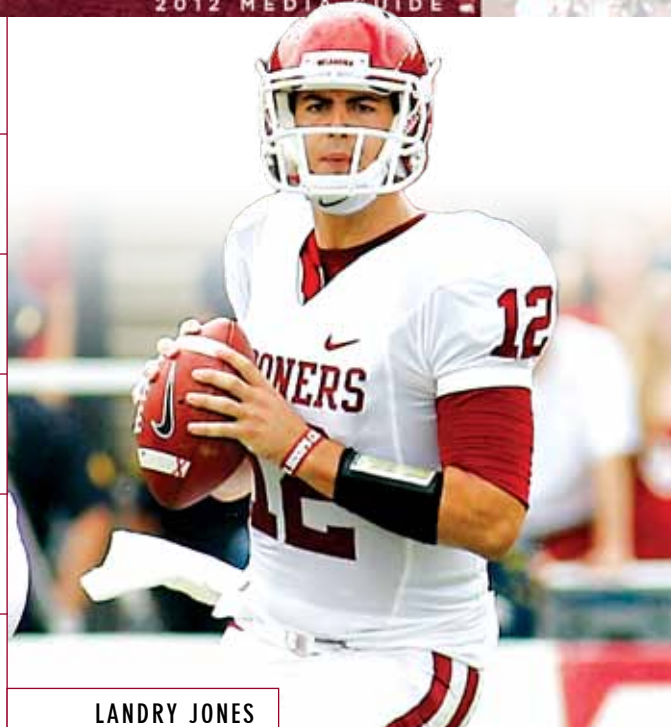

The big-play Sooners have 194 scoring plays of 25 yards or longer since Stoops became the head coach.

14

13

Oklahoma has produced at least one All-Big 12 offensive lineman in each of the last 13 seasons.

OU Outscores College Football

Entering the 2008 season, Oklahoma needed 228 points to become the first ever program in college football history to eclipse 30,000 points.

The 2008 Sooners did that and then some with 716 points, the most ever scored by a major college football program. The total broke the previous record by a full 60 points as the Sooners scored an NCAA record 99 touchdowns. The team also became the first to score 60 or more points in five straight games.

Since Bob Stoops' arrival, Oklahoma has collected a total of 6,396 points. That averages to 492 points per season and 37 per game.

OU is the highest scoring program in college football history. In 1,182 games, the Sooners have scored 31,951 points. Michigan is next at 30,799 points in 1,245 games.

DOMINATING DEFENSE

Attacking Defense Built on Speed

Oklahoma's defense suffers from a bit of an identity crisis.

With a takeaway in 141 of Bob Stoops' 160 games and 38 interception or fumble returns for touchdowns during this coach's tenure, the defense has a reputation of, well, being a little offensive.

The Sooners' attack-style defense, long appreciated for its speed and aggressive attitude, is perhaps best known for its consistency. OU has ranked among the top 16 teams in the nation in total defense for eight of the last 11 years.

Outstanding players have dominated the landscape. Twice in the last 11 years, a Sooner has been named the best defensive player in the nation.

DEMONTRE HURST*DAVID KING

Oklahoma has forced at least one turnover in 151 of 173 games (87 percent) over the last 13 seasons.

87

The Sooner defense has at least one interception in 111 of 151 games (74 percent) over the last 12 years.

74

Sooner defenders have scored 42 touchdowns, an average of more than three per year, since Bob Stoops took over at Oklahoma.

42

Since Bob Stoops arrived in 1999, the Oklahoma defense has surrendered an average of just 18 points per game.

18

13

OU's defense allowed less than 100 rushing yards per game in five of the last 11 seasons.

5

Oklahoma Defense Under Stoops

Turnovers Equal Points with Sooner D

At Oklahoma, the offense's ability to light up the scoreboard has long been intertwined with the defense's knack for taking the ball away from opponents.

That notion was affirmed again in 2011. The Oklahoma 'D' forced 27 turnovers on the season. Of those 27, 13 were converted into TDs, including four by the defense.

Over the last four seasons, 122 takeaways have been converted into 62 touchdowns, better than 50 percent.

BOB STOOPS

Winningest Active Coach in College Football

The kind of admiration Bob Stoops has achieved is the best kind. It's a by-product of the success his program has enjoyed and the manner in which he has conducted himself. Football observers from coast to coast have witnessed the renaissance authored by Stoops at Oklahoma and often proclaim the Sooners coach among the very best in the land. When Stoops arrived in Norman, OU had fallen on brief and uncharacteristic hard times. He has returned Oklahoma football to its rightful place among the elite, and there is no denying that he is the person most responsible for the turnaround. The pride has been restored and a nation has noticed.

Quotes on Coach Stoops

"This is a (Sooners) team that's going to contend for the National Championship as long as Bob Stoops wants to."

- John Saunders, ABC Sports

"He has brought us back to the pinnacle of college football. Bob is creating his own legend. He inherited a program with great tradition, and he's added to it."

- Barry Switzer, Former Oklahoma Head Coach

"In a sport in which icons are dropping annually from sight, and phenoms are forever heading to the NFL, Stoops is the closest thing to a budding legend in the NCAA."

- John Romano, St. Petersburg Times

"Bob Stoops is one of the first guys in the coaching profession that has ability to mix family along with coaching. About 15 years ago, you couldn't do that. People thought that was the wrong thing to do. So I admire coach Stoops in that every time I talk to him, something about family comes up. You have three kids to raise, a wife to take care of and a football team to coach. In that order."

- Urban Meyer, Head Coach, Ohio State University

"Stoops' philosophy is at the same time unbending and liberating. He presides over players who are competitive and aggressive, but also respectful and talkative."

- David Barron, Houston Chronicle

In Bob Stoops' 13 seasons at the University of Oklahoma, six of his assistant coaches have gone on to become head coaches at other I-A programs. It's not hard to gauge the quality of the Sooner staff or Stoops' ability to hire good people.

The beneficiaries are Oklahoma's players. In record numbers they have been honored and drafted into the professional ranks. And that has been true regardless of what position they play.

The Legacy of Prentice Gaunt

The OU Academics Center that today's student-athletes use everyday now bears the name of the man who left an indelible legacy for Sooner Athletics and helped change a society in the process.

"It is appropriate that this center be named after Prentice Gaunt," University of Oklahoma President David L. Boren said. "His personal values and character, along with his leadership as associate commissioner of the Big 12 Conference, continue to bring pride to his alma mater."

"His personal example of quiet courage, grace under pressure, and dedication to the university helped open the doors of opportunity for countless number of African-American and minority student-athletes who have followed him into collegiate athletics."

Sooners Tops Both On and Off Field

Recent numbers from the NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) show that the Oklahoma football program is a prime example of accomplishing excellence not only on the field, but off the field as well.

Oklahoma led all Big 12 Conference institutions for three consecutive years before narrowly finishing third in the 2011-12 academic ranking that is used as a real-time assessment on how student-athletes perform in regards to eligibility, retention and graduation.

In 2008, along with leading the Oklahoma offense to the NCAA record for most points scored in a single season, quarterback Sam Bradford and running back DeMarco Murray were named ESPN the Magazine Academic All-Americans. Brian Lepak became the third Sooner in as many years to garner the honor when he was named to the team in 2010.

Gabe Ikard continued OU's recent streak of Academic All-Americans as the zoology major was named to the team in 2011 with a perfect 4.0 grade point average.

Ikard was one of 17 student-athletes from the Oklahoma football program to be named Academic-All Big 12, including 12 with first team honors.

Sooners Take an Active Role

OU lives by a clear and strong motto as it interacts with its student-athletes ... Inspiring Champions for Today, Preparing Leaders for Tomorrow. As part of that promise, the Athletics Department and the football program take an active role in a number of community service projects.

Individually, football players serve with numerous groups. Two of their largest projects include a free football clinic for underprivileged youth and the distribution of food that is donated by Oklahoma fans at a designated home game.

Each year on the morning of the spring football game, the Sooners provide a complimentary football clinic for a select group of youth from throughout the central Oklahoma region.

The team also plays an active role in a food drive that takes place near the Thanksgiving holiday. OU fans donate food at a game and players help in the distribution the following Monday.

Oklahoma's student-athletes recognize that wearing the Crimson and Cream means representing a popular sports program and themselves as individuals. They are encouraged to respond to a public that adores them, while learning important lessons about making a positive impact in the lives of others in and around the community in which they live.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Oklahoma's student-athletes are as visible off the field as they are when competing for the Sooners. Their significant efforts in the area of community service have been recognized not only on the local scene where they have the most impact, but also from national organizations who recognize the scope of OU's outreach.

No player embodied the Sooner spirit better than Quinton Carter who was named the recipient of the seventh annual Wooden Citizenship Cup. The award is presented annually by the Atlanta-based Athletes For a Better World.

The award honored Carter who started his own foundation, the SOUL Foundation, while at OU. The Las Vegas native also adopted a class at Norman's KinderCare while volunteering for a multitude of other causes.

In four of the last five years, players from Oklahoma's football team have been named to the American Football Coaches Association's Good Works Team, an honor reserved for individuals who excel in their service to others. Jacob Gutierrez was named to the team in 2006, Nic Harris in 2007, Gerald McCoy in 2008 and Carter in 2010.

Gutierrez, who in 2005 was the recipient of the Norman Youth Citizen Volunteer of the year, also was named a finalist for the Wooden Cup. Then, in 2006, Carl Pendleton also was tabbed a finalist for the honor.

Subsequently, Pendleton received post-graduate scholarships from the NCAA and the National Football Foundation, while also being named Big 12 Conference Sportsman of the Year. In addition, Pendleton won the Bobby Bowden Award, the highest student-athlete honor presented by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Oklahoma's roster has long included players who understand what it means to be a role model and those individuals have so involved themselves in the community that it has captured the national spotlight.

GAMEDAY IN NORMAN

Norman - Home of the Sooners

Norman is an ever-changing city of more than 110,000 residents. Located in the heart of the state, it has grown to become the third largest city in Oklahoma. Despite its continuous growth, it has maintained the spirit and serenity of a small, close-knit community.

Since the Oklahoma Land Rush of 1889, Norman has grown into a popular and well-educated city. The spirit of Norman and its citizens is unwavering and uncompromising. While other towns were clamoring to become the state capital, Norman residents wanted to have the first state university. When the first OU president got off the train and saw a prairie, he saw opportunity.

As home to the state's premier educational institution, Norman boasts an excellent quality of life and is a city that thrives on and celebrates the diversity of its community.

Legendary University of Oklahoma football coach Barry Switzer called Norman "a university town with a championship spirit."

Norman continually exhibits its love for sports by hosting numerous local and national athletic events.

3

With the entire city seemingly coming to a halt on gamedays, it was no surprise that Norman was named the No. 3 Best College Sports Town by Forbes.

3

Norman was ranked third nationally in Bloomberg's Business Week Best Places to Live list. The University, entertainment, world-class museums and affordability were all reasons listed for the high ranking.

18

Located just 18 miles north of Norman, the state's capital, Oklahoma City, offers all the trappings of a large metropolitan area within an easy drive.

70°

The average annual temperature in Norman. The area enjoys a temperate climate with mild winters. Four distinct seasons with a warm spring and fall.

175

Norman boasts more than 175 restaurants including barbecue, Mexican, Oriental, Greek, Indian, Italian, Thai, Cajun, seafood, health and natural foods.

196

Due to its central location, Norman is a quick 196-mile drive from Dallas. Roughly 20 percent of OU's students are from Texas and choose to come north.

OKLAHOMA CITY

Oklahoma City

Oklahoma City, the state's capital, is located just 18 miles north of the Norman campus. It was the first city settled in the Land Run of 1889 because of its position at the center of the state.

Oklahoma City offers a variety of attractions and activities different from any other place in the country.

Oklahoma City sprawls across 625 square miles of America's heartland. The city's metro population numbers more than one million -- a third of the entire state's population.

Oklahoma City has become a haven for exciting sports action. It's NBA franchise, the Thunder, played in the NBA Finals in just its fourth season in Oklahoma City. The city is also home to three minor league teams and is the host of the NCAA College Softball World Series.

Located just southeast of downtown, Bricktown is OKC's entertainment and dining district. Restaurants with a total capacity of more than 4,000 seats, shopping, and a generous helping of turn-of-the-century charm has turned Bricktown into a hotspot for Oklahoma City nights.

7 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Prominence on a National Stage

The new Big 12 ushers in its 17th year by welcoming a new commissioner and two new members as it continues to promote the stability, strength and success of one of the nation's premier athletic conferences.

Bob Bowlsby was named the Conference's fourth commissioner on May 4, 2012 after spending the previous six years as director of athletics at Stanford University. TCU and West Virginia became the Big 12's first additions since inception, joining Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas Tech.

With 10 members, the Big 12 will remain as the only major conference in the nation to determine its champions in all sports directly on the field of play.

The Conference's hard work ethic and strong values have translated to enormous success in its first 16 years. Since it began competition in 1996-97, the league can boast of 47 NCAA team titles and 517 individual national championships.

Through its first 16 years, the Big 12 has claimed a team national championship in 16 of the sports it sponsors. The Conference ranks second with seven appearances in the BCS National Championship Game and leads the country with 95 football consensus All-America selections

TREY MILLARD

BAYLOR

Oklahoma has won 20 of its 21 meetings with the Bears.

IOWA STATE

OU owns a commanding 69-5-2 series lead over Cyclones.

KANSAS

OU's 69-27-6 series lead includes 18 shutouts of Kansas.

KANSAS STATE

Sooners once reeled off 32 straight wins over Wildcats.

OKLAHOMA STATE

College football's most lopsided, continuous in-state rivalry.

TCU

The Sooners are 4-0 all-time in Fort Worth.

TEXAS

OU has won eight of the last 12 by a combined score of 355-201.

TEXAS TECH

Sooners own 13-6 series lead against Red Raiders.

WEST VIRGINIA

OU and West Virginia have split four previous meetings.

Big 12 Pride

Competitive excellence, scholarship and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12 philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and Academic All-Big 12 squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons. At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards.

The Big 12 sponsors 23 sports and Big 12 institutions create a league that encompasses five states and nearly 37 million people. More than 4,200 student-athletes from across the United States and around the World compete annually in the sports sponsored by the Conference.

The Conference conducts postseason championships for 20 of its 23 sports. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition. The winner of the Big 12 football regular season championship earns the league's berth into the Bowl Championship Series.

In its first 16 years, the Conference has distributed more than $1.6 billion to its member institutions. The conference office is headquartered in Irving, Texas.

BOB BOWLSBY

College Football at the Highest Level

The Big 12 ranks second with seven appearances in the BCS National Championship Game and leads the country with 95 football consensus All-America selections. The Conference has played for the national title three times in the last seven seasons. From 2000-2005, Big 12 squads played in the title game five times during the six-year span. In all, the Big 12 has appeared in 19 BCS games during the 14-year history of the structure.

The Conference ranks first all-time with 14 teams that have finished in the top four of the final BCS Standings. At least one Big 12 team has placed in the top four of the final BCS Standings a nation leading 11 times in the structure's 14-year history. The Conference has finished the regular season with two top four BCS teams on three occasions, which also leads the country.

Robert Griffin III (Baylor) was the Big 12's fifth Heisman Trophy winner in 2011. Since 1996, the Big 12 has been home to more Heisman winners than any other league. The Conference has had a Heisman finalist (top four in the final voting) 11 out of 16 seasons.

HISTORY

Media Credentials

Requests for media credentials for University of Oklahoma home games should be made online at SoonerSportsMedia.com. Only those requests submitted by the sports editor of a newspaper or the sports director for a radio or television station will be considered.

Priority is given to daily newspapers (by circulation), television stations and radio stations that program sports for more than half of their daily broadcast schedules. A credential does not guarantee a seat and access to the team bench area is prohibited at all times. Credentials include:

Press Box: Primary recipients are newspaper writers, television reporters and radio personnel. This pass gains access to the press box. Sideline access is only permitted for the last five minutes of the game.

Sideline: Primary recipients are photographers. Only photographers on assignment for accredited publications (not web sites) will be afforded credentials. Pass only gains access to the sideline (not the press box).

Combination: These are only for those individuals who require access to the press box and the sideline. Few are issued.

Season Credentials

Requests should be made at SoonerSportsMedia.com by August 23. Only those media who routinely cover OU games, practices and media conferences are eligible for season credentials.

Any media member who loses a season credential will automatically be moved to the single-game list for the following season. Media outlets who cannot provide names for passes for an entire season will be placed on the single-game list and should provide names on a weekly basis.

Single-Game Credentials

Requests must be made at least one week in advance of the contest. Any organization that requests a single-game credential then does not use it will not be granted another pass for the remainder of the season. No credentials will be granted after Thursday of game week.

OU-Texas Credentials

Those interested in covering the annual Oklahoma-Texas game at Dallas will need to make a separate request for credentials. Each school handles the requests from its regular pool of media. Aside from national media, only season credential holders are eligible.

Oklahoma will serve as the host school this year. Any media not based in Oklahoma or Texas should contact OU for credentials. OU-Texas credentials will be distributed to local media at the Monday media luncheon in Norman. Any credentials not claimed that day will be available the Friday before the game at a pickup location in Dallas (times and exact location TBA).

Credential Pickup (OU Home Games)

Credentials may be picked up from the Oklahoma Athletics Communications office during the week or from media will call (Gate 2) at Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium on game day beginning three hours before kickoff (see map on page 55). Photo identification is required for pickup. Each media representative must claim his or her pass. No group pickups are allowed.

Credential Requests

Credential requests for Oklahoma football season will only be accepted online at SoonerSportsMedia.com. Please visit the web site for complete instructions on submitting the online application form.

Pertinent media information, including forms, instructions and special media releases, are available online 24 hours a day. Approved media outlets also have access to OU's high-resolution image library for player and coaching staff action photos and mugs.

Parking Passes

Parking passes are in a limited supply and will be prioritized similar to the way credentials are issued. Most media parking is located in the Asp Ave. Parking Facility, located immediately west of the stadium, one half block north of the intersection at Lindsey and Asp (see map on page 55).

Daily Media Availability

Monday: Bob Stoops participates on the Big 12's Weekly Teleconference at 10:10 a.m. Media Luncheon at 11:30 a.m., at the stadium. Coach Stoops' comments, beginning at noon. A few players also are available.

Wednesday, Thursday, Friday & Sunday: No availability.

Saturday: Post-game availability only. Members of the OU Athletics Communications staff will escort media representatives to the appropriate post-game interview areas with five minutes remaining in the game. The Oklahoma locker room, home or away, is closed to the media at all times.

Head coach Bob Stoops and several Sooners players will be brought to a designated interview area. At home games, that area is the Adrian Peterson Team Meeting Room, located in the Switzer Center (first floor).

At the beginning of the fourth quarter, interview requests will be collected.

For games in Norman, the opposing head coach will meet with the media inside the opponent interview room, the SoonerVision studio (southwest corner, under the stadium grandstands). A representative from the OU Communications Office will be on hand to assist the media in finding this area. Interviews with the head coach and players from the visiting team will be based on the post-game policy of that institution.

Oklahoma Memorial Stadium

Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is one of America's most recognized college football cathedrals. Situated on the east side of the Norman campus, this historical facility is the largest sports arena in the state and, following its expansion in 2004, now ranks among the 16 largest college football stadiums in the nation.

With the expansion of Oklahoma Memorial Stadium to an official capacity of 82,112 and with every home game exceeding that capacity, Oklahoma set numerous attendance records the past two years. In fact, the 10 largest crowds in Memorial Stadium history have occurred in the past few seasons.

Oklahoma's average attendance in 2011 for six home games was a record 85,161. OU ranked third in the Big 12 Conference and No. 13 in the nation in average attendance. Oklahoma ranked No. 5 in the nation in percent of stadium capacity filled for home games at 104 percent.

The largest crowd ever to watch a game in the history of the state of Oklahoma jammed Memorial Stadium on November 22, 2008. The Sooners stormed past rival Texas Tech, 65-21, in front of 85,646 fans.

OU has compiled a 77-3 record at home (.963) under head coach Bob Stoops (1999-2011). Not coincidentally, those 13 seasons all rank at the top of the list for average home attendance.

Sooner Football Radio

The Sooner Sports Radio Network with Toby Rowland, Merv Johnson and Chris Plank blankets the state of Oklahoma and also delivers Sooner football games to fans and alumni in neighboring states.

The flagship stations for the network are 50,000-watt KOKC, AM 1520 and KR XO, 107.7 FM in Oklahoma City. In Tulsa, the Sooner Sports Radio Network broadcasts may be heard on 100,000-watt KMOD, 97.5 FM and AM 1430.

These three stations, along with more than 35 regional affiliates, carry Sooner Sports Talk with Bob Stoops on Tuesday nights, the Coaches Corner with Sooner Coordinators on Thursday evenings and Sooner Sports Today, which airs twice daily, five days per week throughout the season.

Game Broadcasts

Network broadcasts for all Sooner football games will begin 90 minutes prior to kickoff with a call-in segment, the Sooner Tailgate Show. The show includes interviews with coaches and players plus a pre-game conversation with Bob Stoops. After the game, the Sooner Wrap-up Show features game highlights, player comments and a post-game interview show with Stoops and his assistant coaches.

Sooner Sports Talk with Bob Stoops

Each Tuesday throughout the season, Sooner Sports Talk provides fans with the opportunity to talk to OU head coach Bob Stoops. The statewide broadcasts air from 7:05-8 p.m. Central. Call toll free at (877) 600-6432.

Coaches' Corner

Each Thursday throughout the season, Coaches Corner will feature OU assistant coaches on a statewide call-in show. The broadcast will air from 7:05-8 p.m. Central. Call toll free at (877) 600-6432.

A New Identity

Several times in the history of Oklahoma football, big names and stars have graduated only to give way to players ready to step a top a new plateau with yet another championship. That rings true in 2012.

Although OU returns 12 players on offense and 12 players on defense with a combined 339 career starts, it lost serious star power in its small 2011 senior class that combined for 271 starts among 12 players on offense and defense.

Familiar names such as Alexander, Broyles, Fleming, Hanna, Lewis and Stephenson no longer dot the Oklahoma roster. But in Norman, competition on the depth chart breeds development as players continually push each other for playing time.

The NCAA career receptions leader in Ryan Broyles will have to be replaced as will the 2011 Big 12 Co-Defensive Player in Frank Alexander and the leading tackler in the Bob Stoops' era, Travis Lewis.

While some big-time contributors are gone, Oklahoma will have no sympathy from its opponents as it replenishes its depth chart with new young and talented players to play alongside established leaders such as Landry Jones, Ben Habern, Gabe Ikard and Kenny Stills on the offensive side and Demontre Hurst, Tom Wort and Tony Jefferson on the defensive side of the ball.

And those opponents include two new Big 12 foes in TCU and West Virginia, both road trips for the Sooners in 2012.

Changes to Oklahoma weren't limited to the roster and conference schedule as Mike Stoops returned to Norman for a second stint as the Sooners' defensive coordinator. Stoops, who will oversee the defensive backfield, brought along a familiar face in new linebackers coach Tim Kish, who was on Stoops' staff at Arizona.

The changing of the guard is a common theme in college football and in 2012, like in other year's past with changes, Oklahoma again sets its focus on a common goal ... winning championships.

The Offense

When Landry Jones announced he would return to Norman for his senior year in January, the Oklahoma offense returned the most seasoned quarterback in Oklahoma history with 37 career starts.

Jones' experience will be valued in the passing game as the loss of the NCAA career receptions leader, Ryan Broyles, takes away Jones' most trusted aerial threat. Several receivers will be given the chance this fall to help fill Broyles' role.

SEASON REVIEW

HISTORY

The backfield will be bolstered in the fall as OU's leading rusher from a year ago, Dominique Whaley, works his way back from a broken ankle suffered against Kansas State in 2011.

QUARTERBACKS

No quarterback in Oklahoma history has started more games than Landry Jones. Now the senior will attempt to capture the most wins in OU history and his past exploits show he has a great chance to do just that.

With a rotating cast last season on the offensive side due to a number of injuries, the offense relied on Jones to steady the ship and the New Mexico native did just that, finishing No. 6 nationally in total offense.

Jones raised his yards-per-game average to 343.3 in 2011 while throwing 29 touchdowns and just 15 interceptions. His 4,463 yards on 355 completions resulted in a 12.6 yards per completion rate.

Junior Drew Allen, Oklahoma's second-most experienced passer, also returns to provide backup to Jones as does sophomore Blake Bell.

A revelation towards the end of the season was the running ability of Bell. In his first season on the collegiate level, Bell rushed for an OU freshman quarterback record 13 touchdowns.

Kendal Thompson, who redshirted last season, also returns in 2012 while freshman Trevor Knight joins the Sooner camp.

RUNNING BACKS

A big surprise in 2012 was the play of former walk-on running back Dominique Whaley. The former sandwich artist quickly proved any doubters wrong by leading OU in rushing yards with 627 despite just playing six games and one play of a seventh.

A broken ankle ended Whaley's season five games early, but indications are that he'll be ready in the fall.

Junior Roy Finch enters the fall as OU's second-leading rusher for the second straight season. The smallest of the Oklahoma backs ended 2011 with 605 yards on 111 carries while coming on strong at the end of the year with 73 carries in the season's final five games.

Another junior, Brennan Clay, had 75 carries on the year, finishing with 274 yards. Redshirt-freshman Danzel Williams is the only other running back returning from 2011.

Three running backs enter the competition for carries this fall as junior college transfer Damien Williams and incoming freshmen Daniel Brooks, Alex Ross and David Smith make their way to campus.

At fullback, the versatile Trey Millard returns for the third straight year in the backfield. Millard owns the most touches by a fullback in the Stoops' era and continued the trend in 2011 with 24 carries and 13 receptions.

RECEIVERS

Any coach would admit that you can not easily replace a player in the mold of Ryan Broyles. The NCAA career receptions record holder with 349 career catches also provided a steady influence in the Sooners' locker room.

When Broyles' career ended with a torn ACL and three games remaining on the 2011 schedule, a number of receivers were given a hastily scheduled interview to replace the best receiver in Oklahoma history.

The leading receiver among the four, Kenny Stills, returns for a junior season after hauling in 61 catches for 849 yards and eight touchdowns in 2011.

An incoming receiver class that includes junior college transfers LaColtan Bester and Courtney Gardner along with freshmen Durrion Neal, Sterling Shepard and Derrick Woods will have the opportunity to prove their worth right away.

At tight end, OU is guaranteed to have a new face in the starting lineup as a complete cast of newcomers comprises the tight end core.

Junior college transfer Brannon Green and early enrollee Taylor McNamara were given the first shots at the position in the spring.

Freshman Sam Grant arrives in the fall and will provide competition at the spot as well former d-end Geneo Grissom, who made the switch to the offensive side of the ball in the summer.

OFFENSIVE LINE

For the second straight year, Oklahoma returns a multitude of experience along the offensive line losing only one player in its two deep, although an important one in left tackle Donald Stephenson.

Six players with a total of 102 career starts return and one could make an argument that the interior of the offensive line is among the nation's best.

Senior center Ben Habern, leads the way with 30 career starts, although as last year proved Habern isn't the only serviceable option to snap the ball.

When Habern missed five games with an injury, junior Gabe Ikard (25 career starts) slid over from his left guard spot to fill in en route to earning third team All-American and first team All-Big 12 honors.

When Ikard slid to center, sophomore Adam Shead took over the starting role for five games and leads a group of talented backups at the position. He's joined by junior Bronson Irwin and redshirt-freshman Nila Kasitati, who OU coaches are high on. Junior Austin Woods, who also serves as OU's long snapper on place kicks, provides depth at center.

At tackle, the Sooners must replace Stephenson, who protected Jones' blindside. Options include senior Lane Johnson, who started 12 games on the right side last season, sophomore Daryl Williams, who started one, sophomore Tyrus Thompson and redshirt-freshman Derek Farniok.

Offensive tackle Will Latu, a junior college transfer, will join incoming freshmen Ty Darlington, Kyle Marrs and John Michael McGee on the line in the fall.

The Defense

During Mike Stoops first stint as defensive coordinator at Oklahoma, the defense was built on aggression and speed with ball-hawking athletes across the field accounting for 18 defensive touchdowns.

The loss of All-Big 12 defensive ends Frank Alexander and Ronnell Lewis will open the door for others on the ends of the line. At linebacker, OU will replace the leading tackler in the Bob Stoops' era in Travis Lewis while All-Big 12 cornerback Jamell Fleming took his game to the next level as well.

DEFENSIVE LINE

For the second straight year, OU will look to replace the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year at defensive end after Frank Alexander accomplished the task in replacing Jeremy Beal.

OU owned the defensive end position on the All-Big 12 team as Ronnell Lewis, who elected to bypass his senior year for the NFL, held down the end opposite of Alexander.

The senior duo of David King and R.J. Washington backed up the All-Big 12 duo in 2011 and will now look to take over their production. King owns eight career starts and showed the versatility to play both end and tackle at 6-5 and 273 pounds.

Across the way from King, Washington has seen action in 26 games and looks to use a breakout performance in the Insight Bowl to carry over to 2012.

Sophomore Chuka Ndulue, who played in seven games last year, and junior college transfer Chaz Nelson could step up in the two deep behind King and Washington.

They will be challenged by sophomore Rashod Favors, redshirt-freshman Nathan Hughes along with freshmen Mike Onuoha and Charles Tapper.

At tackle, not much changes for OU as the two deep from last season returns in full. Seniors Casey Walker and JaMarkus McFarland led the way with eight and seven starts, respectively, last year as classmate Stacy McGee earned four starts and leads the rotation with 15 career starts.

Sophomore Torrea Peterson played in four games last year and will be in competition with a pair of Jordans in redshirt-freshman Jordan Phillips and freshman Jordan Wade.

LINEBACKERS

For the first time in four years, the OU linebackers corps won't feature Travis Lewis, the leading tackler in the Stoops' era and the owner of 53 career starts.

A new identity emerges for the linebacking group with new position coach Tim Kish taking over a group that has experience in the middle where junior Tom Wort owns 21 career starts. He's backed up by senior Jaydan Bird, who has seen action in 39 games.

On the weakside, jack-of-all-trades Corey Nelson returns after starting 11 games at either linebacker or in a stand-up defensive end role. The special teams ace looks to be backed up by sophomore Aaron Franklin who made his mark on the special teams last year in 10 games.

The strongside position could be manned by senior Joseph Ibiloeye who owns six career starts and has played in 39 career games. Redshirt-freshman Frank Shannon was impressive in practice last year and will join the fray at the position.

A number of linebackers have a chance to impress their new coach and gain playing time including senior Daniel Franklin, sophomore Caleb Gastelum and redshirt-freshmen P.L. Lindley and Londell Taylor. Freshman Eric Striker is the lone newcomer to the group.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

After only having one returning starter last year, the OU defensive backfield returns five full or part-time starters in 2012 along with new defensive coordinator and position coach in Mike Stoops.

Senior cornerback Demontre Hurst returns after earning All-Big 12 honors last season and is now the most experienced player on the Sooner defense with 27 career starts. He'll be backed up by Lamar Harris.

One of the most versatile members of the secondary, Aaron Colvin, missed the spring after an offseason procedure. Colvin owns 13 career starts and has started at both corner and safety.

The boundary corner is up for grabs with Colvin, junior Gabe Lynn, who owns two career starts, sophomore Julian Wilson and junior college transfer Kass Everett looking to replace Jamell Fleming.

At strong safety, junior Tony Jefferson will look to improve on his sophomore season that was highlighted by four interceptions.

Over at free safety, senior Javon Harris started eight games at the position in 2011 and has seen action in 31 career games. Senior Jesse Paulsen will provide depth at the position.

The group will add two in the fall camp when freshmen Zach Sanchez and Gary Simon join the group.

HISTORY

The Special Teams

Most of the key figures on the special teams returns in 2011 with kicker Michael Hunnicutt and punter Tress Way providing familiarity for Oklahoma followers and a number of returners available.

KICKER

Sophomore Michael Hunnicutt entered the 2011 season in a battle for the starting kicking role. After three games, Hunnicutt grabbed the starting role by the horns and didn't look back. By the time the season had ended, Hunnicutt had tied the OU record for field goals in the season while breaking the Big 12 record for field goals by a freshman with 21.

Hunnicutt was strong from deep, a perfect four-of-four from beyond 40 yards and his strong leg will be used on kickoffs, as well.

PUNTER

Senior punter Tress Way prides himself as a valuable asset in the field position game, whether by booming a punt over 50 yards, which he has done 58 times in his career or placing a punt inside the 20-yard line, like he did on 34 of his 63 punts in 2011. He'll look to do more of the same in 2012.

RETURNERS

When Ryan Broyles went down late in the season, OU got an early start on replacing him at punt returner. Kenny Stills filled the role at the end of the season and will be given an opportunity in the fall.

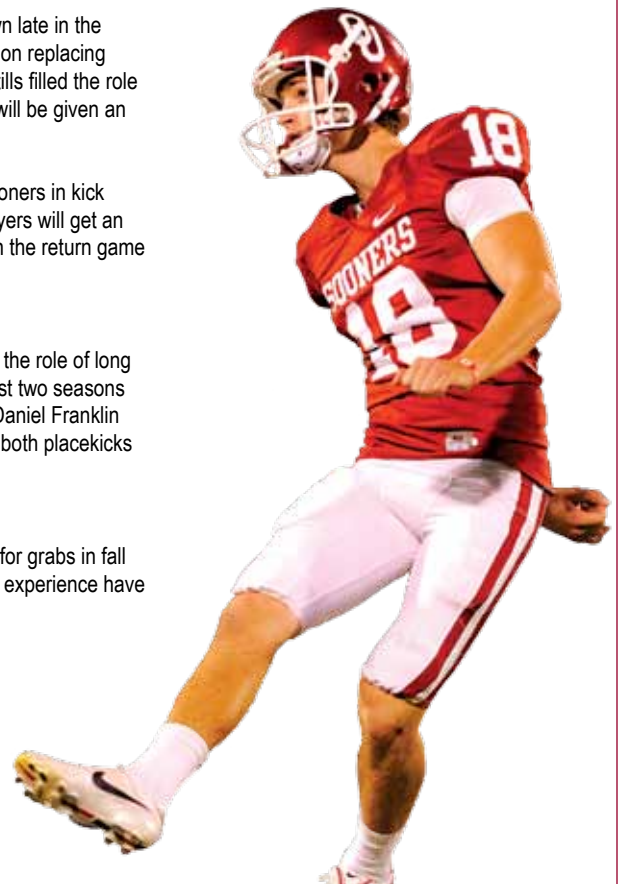

Roy Finch led all returning Sooners in kick returns in 2011 as several players will get an opportunity to solidify a spot in the return game during the fall camp.

DEEP SNAPPER

Junior Austin Woods has held the role of long snapper on placements the last two seasons and will compete with senior Daniel Franklin for the opportunity to snap on both placekicks and punts.

HOLDER

The holder position will be up for grabs in fall camp as the only holders with experience have left the program.

Oklahoma will play its seventh consecutive 12-game regular-season schedule in 2012, hosting six of those contests in Norman. The Sooners will travel to face both of their new Big 12 opponents, West Virginia and TCU, in two of their final three games. Highlighting the non-conference slate is Notre Dame's first visit to Norman since 1966. A pair of firsts mark the remainder of the non-conference schedule as OU makes its first ever regular-season trip to UTEP, while playing Florida A&M for the first ever time in a home meeting. The matchup with Texas at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas is set for the second Saturday in October while the Bedlam Game against Oklahoma State returns to Thanksgiving weekend.

HEAD COACH

BOB STOOPS

HEAD COACH | 14TH SEASON | 139-34 (.803) RECORD AT OKLAHOMA

History is one tough customer at Oklahoma. The tradition, so rich and so long-standing, is as daunting as it is impressive. To be among the best at Oklahoma is to be among the best in college football...

Such dramatics are not lost on Bob Stoops. The Sooners head coach befriended the would-be albatross of OU's successful past from his first day on campus and remains steadfastly focused on tomorrow and the championship it holds.

It falls then to long-time observers and experts of the game to define Stoops' impact. Rarely have the pundits had it so easy.

Last season, Oklahoma registered its 10th 10-win season under Stoops. In 2010 Oklahoma won its seventh Big 12 title, all of which have come under the current head coach. Stoops didn't arrive at OU until the Big 12 was three years old, but already he has coached the program to more than twice as many championships as any other school in the league.

Stoops won a national crown in 2000, just his second season in Norman, and has led the Sooners to 13 consecutive bowl games, a school record, including seven of the BCS variety.

Along the way, he has picked up 17 coach of the year citations including eight on the national level (only five coaches nationally have won more conference coach of the year awards), and watched five assistant coaches move into Football Bowl Subdivision head coaching positions.

In 13 seasons under Stoops, Oklahoma has been a fixture on the national stage. The brilliance dulls the memory of what he inherited. When he arrived in Norman, the proud Sooner program was five years removed from a winning record, four from a postseason appearance. Those atypical days of angst are so forgotten now that they might as well be mentioned with the Land Rush and Dust Bowl.

Today, the school reflects on 139 victories (Stoops reached 100 victories faster than any coach in college football history), an average of 10.7 per season, during this coach's tenure, including a 44-18 mark against opponents ranked among the Associated Press top 25.

Two Heisman winners and five Heisman finalists have been characteristic of the talent Stoops and his staff have attracted. The offenses have been among the best in college football history (the 2008 team was the first to score 60 or more points in five straight games en route to scoring an NCAA record 716 points).

The defense has been stingy and is the only program to produce two players who won the Thorpe and Nagurski Awards in the same season. Stoops has been characterized as a grounded family man, big-game coach, relentless recruiter, strong leader and a person with uncommon perspective.

His success emanates from a disciplined style true to his roots in the Steel Valley of Ohio, but he is far from inflexible. The principles to which he holds are the tried and true axioms of the sport mixed with cutting-edge strategy and an appreciation for the calculated risk.

The son of a coach, Stoops was a four-year starter at Iowa. He began his coaching career in 1983 as a volunteer in the Hawkeye program under Hayden Fry, working through the ranks until he became co-defensive coordinator at Kansas State (1991-95). There he played a key role in one of the most impressive turnarounds in college football history while serving on Bill Snyder's staff.

Eventually, he left for Florida and a three-year stint as Steve Spurrier's defensive coordinator. It was with the Gators, and a national championship team in 1996, that the spotlight found Stoops and made him one of the hottest names in the profession. His hiring at Oklahoma was one for the ages.

Coaching Accomplishments

- Stoops is 139-34 in 13 seasons. He is 91-22 vs. the Big 12, 7-1 in the Big 12 title game, 49-12 vs. non-conference opponents, 77-3 at home, 38-18 on the road and 24-13 on neutral fields.
- OU has set four NCAA records and set or tied 112 school records under Stoops, not including bowl bests and marks specific to a particular position. ## THE STOOPS FAMILY

• Stoops has authored two of the seven longest winning streaks in Oklahoma history. His 2000 and 2001 teams combined to win 20 straight, while the 2002 and 2003 teams combined to reel off 14 in a row. Those victories all came against FBS opponents.

• Stoops' squads have put together the school's longest home field winning streak at 39. That's also the ninth longest in the history of college football. Stoops also has fashioned two other streaks of 19 straight.

• OU won the 2000 national championship, played for three more and captured eight Big 12 South crowns and seven Big 12 titles. Oklahoma has spent 30 weeks at No. 1 in the AP poll and a national-leading 20 weeks atop the BCS standings.

• Oklahoma has held a double-digit lead in 141 of Stoops' 173 games.

• Oklahoma has played in 13 straight bowl games under Stoops. Never had an OU coach taken even his first three teams to bowls. Prior to Stoops' arrival, OU had not played in one of what is now a BCS game since the 1988 Orange Bowl (1987 season). Stoops, in his second season, led OU to the 2001 Orange Bowl (2000 season).

• An OU player finished among the top seven in the Heisman voting six times on Stoops' watch: Sam Bradford (No. 1 in 2008), Adrian Peterson (No. 2 in 2004), Jason White (No. 3 in 2004), Jason White (No. 1 in 2003), Roy Williams (No. 7 in 2001) and Josh Heupel (No. 2 in 2000).

• Under Stoops, OU has produced 36 All-Americans; two AP Players of the Year (Heupel, White); two Nagurski Award winners (Williams, Derrick Strait); two Thorpe Award winners (Williams, Strait); two Butkus Award winners (Rocky Calmus, Teddy Lehman); one Bednarik Award winner (Lehman); one Lombardi Award winner (Tommie Harris); one Walter Camp winner (Heupel); three O'Brien Award winners (Sam Bradford and White twice); a Maxwell Award winner (White); a Unitas Award winner (White); an Outland Trophy winner (Jammal Brown) and one Mosi Tatupu Award winner (J.T. Thatcher).

• All 80 home games of Stoops tenure have been sold out and the stadium capacity has been increased by some 9,000 seats since his arrival. In a state of 3.5 million people and two other FBS programs, attendance in Norman routinely exceeds 84,000.

• In 1996 and 1997, his Florida defense scored eight touchdowns. The 1996 Gators won the national championship. During his final four seasons at Kansas State, the Wildcats were a 35-12 and played in three bowl games.

MIKE STOOPS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/DEFENSIVE BACKS | SIXTH SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

- Has coached 28 NFL Draft Picks while players under his direction have combined for 11 national awards, 12 All-American honors, 29 All-Conference honors and 30 Academic All-Conference honors.
- Is the only coach to have an athlete win both the Nagurski Award (best defensive player) and the Thorpe Award (best defensive back) in the same season and has done so twice with Roy Williams (2001) and Derrick Strait (2003).
- In his first stint at Oklahoma (1999-2003), four of his five defenses finished seventh or better nationally in scoring defense and in the top 10 for total defense.
- As head coach at Arizona, guided the Wildcats to a school-record three consecutive bowl games in the 2008, 2009 and 2010 seasons. His 2010 squad reached Arizona's highest regular-season ranking, No. 9, in the last 13 years while his 2009 team finished second in the Pac 10, its highest finish in 13 seasons.
- Had nine wins over nationally-ranked opponents and defeated a ranked team in each of his first seven seasons at Arizona.
- Established 84 Arizona program records under his watch.
- The 2003 Sooners defense under Stoops ranked No. 3 nationally in total defense No. 2 in pass defense, No. 5 in scoring defense, No. 5 in turnover margin and No. 20 in rushing defense.
- In 2002, OU was No. 6 nationally in scoring defense, No. 9 in pass efficiency defense, No. 10 in total defense, No. 14 in rushing defense and No. 25 in passing defense.
- In 2001, OU ranked No. 4 nationally in scoring and total defense, No. 5 in pass efficiency defense, No. 10 in takeaways, No. 7 in rushing defense and No. 11 in passing defense.
- The 2000 Oklahoma defense was No. 2 in pass efficiency defense, No. 5 in turnovers gained, No. 7 in scoring defense, No. 8 in total defense, No. 9 in passing defense and No. 23 in rushing defense.

BOBBY JACK WRIGHT

ASST. HEAD COACH/SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/DEFENSIVE ENDS | 14TH SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Turned a pupil into the Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year for the second straight season in 2011 as Frank Alexander was also the Big 12 Co-Defensive Player of the Year. Both of his starting ends were named All-Big 12 as Ronnell Lewis was placed on the first team as well. The two combined for one of the finest seasons by a defensive end duo at OU with a combined 32 tackles for loss, 14 sacks, two interceptions, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

• Returned to the defensive end position for 2010, and helped Jeremy Beal rank among the top 20 nationally in tackles for loss. He led the Big 12 and ranked No. 2 in the league in sacks.

• Secondary ranked No. 10 nationally in pass efficiency defense in 2009. Four players received All-Big 12 honors. The '09 defense gave up fewest passing yards in Big 12.

• OU added two new starters at corner in 2008, but still flourished, scoring two TDs. The Sooners led the high-scoring, pass-happy Big 12 in pass efficiency defense.

• Helped 2007 OU defense to the No. 3 Big 12 defensive pass efficiency ranking. OU was second in the conference with 19 interceptions. Three DBs (Nic Harris, Reggie Smith, D.J. Wolfe) received first-team All-Big 12 honors.

• In 2006, OU led the Big 12 and ranked No. 13 nationally in pass efficiency defense. All five players who started in the secondary received all-conference recognition.

• Moved to the secondary in 2005. Two players earned postseason honors. The Sooners ranked No. 21 nationally in passing efficiency defense. In Big 12 games, OU ranked No. 1 in completion percentage, No. 2 in passing efficiency and No. 3 in passing yardage defense.

• OU defensive backs had more interceptions in 11 games of 2005 than in 13 games of 2004.

• The 2004 DEs, Dan Cody, Jonathan Jackson and Larry Birdine, were No. 1, 2 and 3, respectively, in Big 12 sacks.

• Special teams coordinator in 2004, he saw OU rank No. 1 in the Big 12 in kickoff coverage (15.7 ypr.) while giving opponents an average of just 4.2 yards on 21 attempts.

• In 2003, his ends had 35 TFL, 20 sacks and 59 hurries. In '02, the DEs accounted for nearly half of the team's sacks. In '01, the ends combined for 21 tackles for loss.

• Under Wright's guidance, All-Big 12 receiver Mike Adams broke every UT record in 1996.

• His '91 secondary led nation in pass efficiency defense.

• Developed Texas K Phil Dawson, an All-SWC honoree and Lou Groza semifinalist, into the nation's top-ranked kicker.

• His 1995 receiving unit was the best in the SWC with 16.8 yards/catch (107 catches for 1,796 yards and 10 TD).

• Helped North Texas to 1983 league title, I-AA playoffs.

• Was on the coaching staff that led Texas A&I to the 1979 Division II national title.

JOSH HEUPEL

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS | EIGHTH SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• First year co-offensive coordinator saw his unit finish No. 5 nationally in both total offense and passing offense in 2011. Also finished No. 10 in scoring offense while Landry Jones was No. 6 nationally in total offense. Blake Bell broke the OU record for rushing touchdowns by a freshman quarterback with 13 TDs.

• Helped Landry Jones to a banner 2010 season in which he ranked No. 2 nationally in passing yards and No. 5 in total offense. Jones won the Sammy Baugh Award as college football's top passer.

• Dealt with a season-ending injury to returning Heisman winner Sam Bradford in 2009, then helped Jones lead the nation in freshman passing TDs while breaking the school record for TDs in a game with six.

• Tutored Heisman, Davey O'Brien and Sammy Baugh winner Sam Bradford, who threw for 4,720 yards and 50 TDs with just eight interceptions. Bradford ranked No. 1 nationally in passing efficiency. He also moved to 86 career TD passes, the most in NCAA history in the first two years of a career. He led the highest scoring offense ever and an NCAA record string of five straight 60-point games.

• In 2007, Heupel coached RS freshman Bradford, who led nation in passing efficiency (176.5) and set NCAA frosh mark record with 36 TD passes. He made four All-America freshman teams and was a finalist for the Manning Award.

• Coached Paul Thompson, who, after finding out one day before fall camp that he would play QB, piloted OU to an 11-3 mark in 2006. Thompson ranks among OU's top 10 for passing yards, TD passes and completion percentage.

• Returned to his alma mater late in 2005 campaign and was on the staff for the Holiday Bowl victory over Oregon.

• Coached tight ends at Arizona in 2005. The top two combined for 31 receptions for 346 yards and eight TDs. Brad Wood led the Wildcats with six touchdowns.

• Helped coach Oklahoma to the 2004 (Sugar Bowl) and 2005 (Orange Bowl) national championship games as a graduate assistant.

• Founded The 14 Foundation, a non-profit organization that serves underprivileged children throughout Oklahoma.

Accomplishments as a Player

• In 2000, he was the 2000 Heisman Trophy runner-up, Walter Camp Award winner, Associated Press Player of the Year, 2000 and CBS Player of the Year, 2000.

• Led OU to 2000 national championship.

• OU's first consensus All-America quarterback, and first Oklahoma QB since 1971 to earn All-America honors.

• Eighty percent winning percentage with a 20-5 mark.

• Passed for 7,456 yards and 53 touchdowns in career.

• Oklahoma career top three in passing yards, completions and touchdown passes despite playing just two seasons.

• 2001 NFL draft, sixth round, Miami Dolphins.

CALE GUNDY

DIRECTOR OF RECRUITING/RUNNING BACKS | 14TH SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

- His 2011 group overcame injuries to accumulate 1,914 yards on 376 carries (5.9 yards per carry) and 15 touchdowns. Transformed walk-on Dominique Whaley into the leading rusher despite only playing seven games, three of which he had more than 100 yards rushing in.
- The 2010 featured the record-setting exploits of DeMarco Murray, who broke Steve Owen's 41-year-old OU record for career touchdowns and Joe Washington's 35-year-old mark for all-purpose yards. Murray also set a career standard for receiving yards by a running back at Oklahoma and cracked the career top 10 rushing list.
- Saw Chris Brown and Murray become the first OU players on the same roster to eclipse 40 career TDs during the 2009 season. The duo also became the sixth pair in school history to rush for over 2,000 career yards.
- In 2008, OU had two 1,000-yard rushers in Murray and Brown. OU rushed for 205.5 yards per game and had 4.8 yards per carry.
- The 2007 season saw three different backs eclipse the 500-yard mark, led by Allen Patrick with 1,097. Two logged 100-yard games. Murray was a Freshman All-American. OU rushed for 190.7 yards per game.
- In 2006, three different OU running backs logged 100-yard games, including true freshman Brown, as the team piled up 177.4 rushing yards per game.
- In 2005, coached his third 1,000-yard rusher and saw two different backs log 100-yard games for second straight season.
- In 2004, Adrian Peterson, who set school season record and NCAA freshman rushing record with 1,925 yards.
- Also tutored Kejuan Jones, who rushed for more than 2,000 yards during his career.
- Adept at securing the ball, Gundy's 2004 backs logged 48 receptions for 377 yards and rarely lost a fumble (OU lost only nine as a team).

• Coached 2003 OU backs to 1,896 yards. The backfield hauled in 54 passes for three TDs. Oklahoma's running backs were charged with just two fumbles lost.

• No OU back lost a fumble in 2002 and there were only two in 2001.

• Coached Quentin Griffin, who finished as the No. 2 rusher in OU history. In 2002, he gained 1,884 yards (No. 6 NCAA/134.6 yards per game). Griffin, a consensus All-Big 12 first team selection, became the Sooners' first 1,000-yard rusher since 1998 and finished his career as the school's second leading receiver. He caught one pass in an OU record 29 consecutive games.

• In 2000, OU backs produced 32 rushing TDs, up from 15 in 1999. First team All-Big 12 Griffin scored 16 of those, including six against Texas to set a Sooner record.

Prominent Pupils

- DeMarco Murray (Oklahoma), Cowboys
All-Big 12
- Allen Patrick (Oklahoma)

Consensus All-American;
highest finishing freshman (second) in the history of the Heisman Trophy.
- Quentin Griffin (Oklahoma)
First team All-Big 12; Second team All-American

Accomplishments as a Player

- Held virtually all of the Sooners' single-game, single-season and career passing records prior to Josh Heupel, Jason White and Sam Bradford.
- Paced the Sooners to a 31-13-2 record in his four seasons and was all-conference as a senior.
- One of only four OU quarterbacks to throw for more than 4,000 yards (Bradford, Heupel, White).
- First team All-Big Eight as a senior.

JAY NORVELL

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/RECEIVERS | FIFTH SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Norvell has unique experience in coaching both in the NFL Super Bowl and BCS championship. He was promoted to Co-Offensive Coordinator on Dec. 13, 2010.

• Ryan Broyles became the all-time NCAA career receptions leader in 2011 despite only playing in nine games. The Biletnikoff finalist and All-American still had the third-best season in Oklahoma history with his 83 receptions for 1,157 yards and 10 TDs. Broyles, Kenny Stills (61 receptions) and Jaz Reynolds (41) combined to form the third-best receiving trio in OU history and the best involving just wide receivers.

• In 2010, Ryan Broyles set eight of the nine major receiving records at Oklahoma en route to All-America status and the finals of the Biletnikoff Award, while Kenny Stills shattered the school's freshman receiving records.

• Norvell's 2009 group was led by Broyles who finished the year No. 1 at OU for receptions in a season (89) and TDs in a season (15) and No. 3 for yards in a season (1,120). He led the Big 12 in TD receptions.

• The 2008 receivers hauled in 49 TDs. Juakin Iglesias led with 1,092 yards and three others eclipsed 500. OU receivers averaged 356.5 yards/game, 14.3 yards /catch.

• Prior to OU, Norvell spent his 21 years as a coach with Iowa, Northern Iowa, Wisconsin, Iowa State, Indianapolis Colts, Oakland Raiders, Nebraska and most recently was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for UCLA.

• In 2007, Norvell led the UCLA offense to a fast start, but injuries set back the Bruins in the second half of the season. UCLA went through four QBs and despite a walk-on freshman as the lead signal caller, UCLA beat two top-10 teams and played in the Las Vegas Bowl.

• In 2006, Nebraska won the Big 12 North and was one of two schools to rank in the top 25 in rushing, passing, total offense and scoring offense. NU ranked No. 23 in passing (244.1 yards/game); No. 23 in rushing, (170.5 yards/game); No. 14 in total offense (414.6 yards/game); and 17th in scoring (30.6 points/game). QB Zac Taylor was the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year. He set school records with 3,197 passing yards, 26 TDs and 3,165 total yards.

• In 2005, Taylor broke the NU game records for passing yards (431), completions (36), attempts (55) and total offense (433), and single-season marks for completions (237) and attempts (430).

• In 2004, Norvell helped the Husker QBs post the fifth 2,000-plus yard passing season in program history and its best passing average (186.9) since 1976.

• In 2002, he helped the Oakland Raiders to the Super Bowl. The team featured the most prolific offense in the NFL at nearly 390 total yards/game. Norvell played a key role in designing a passing attack that averaged 279.7 yards. Oakland finished with two explosive play-off efforts, defeating the New York Jets 30-10, before a 41-24 victory over Tennessee in the AFC title game.

• From 1998-2001, he served as WRs coach for the Indianapolis Colts, working with the passing game and tutoring All-Pro Marvin Harrison. In Norvell's final season, Harrison had 109 catches for 1,524 yards and 15 TDs.

• In 2002, Harrison became the only player in NFL history with four consecutive 100-catch seasons. Under Norvell, Harrison had 385 receptions for 5,376 yards and 48 TDs.

• In 1997 at Iowa State, passing improved by nearly 100 yards/game. Ty Watley led Big 12 with 827 receiving yards.

Prominent Pupils

TIM KISH

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS | FIRST SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

- One of the nation's most-veteran defensive coaches and has established himself as one of the nation's top recruiters
- Has three decades of coaching experience in the Big Ten, the Ohio prep ranks, at two Mid-American Conference schools and at a major FBS independent
- Named a top 25 national recruiter for Arizona in each of the 2004, 2005 and 2006 seasons
- Named interim head coach of the Arizona Wildcat football team on October 10, 2011. Previously, he served as defensive coordinator since December 2010 and was co-defensive coordinator during the 2010 season. He also served as UA's assistant head coach.

• Despite missing 14 games in 2005, UA's linebacking trio of Larsen, Palmer and sophomore Dane Krogstad combined for 127 tackles. Each had break-out games of 14+ tackles. Palmer earned honorable mention freshman All-America honors in his abbreviated 2005 debut season.

• Helped Northwestern win two Big Ten Conference titles and earn consecutive appearances in the Rose and Citrus Bowls.

• Part of an Illinois staff that took a 0-11 team in 1997 and improved the squad's mark to 8-4 by 1999. His Illini unit that year recovered 13 fumbles, had 30 sacks and intercepted 14 passes, plus knocked off No. 9 Michigan in Ann Arbor and posted another big road victory at No. 22 Ohio State. The Illini beat Virginia in the Micronpc.com Bowl and finished the season ranked No. 24.

• During his time at Army, he helped the Cadets make three bowl appearances, including a 31-29 victory over Illinois in the 1985 Peach Bowl. That season Army posted a 9-3 record and held eight of 12 opponents to 17 points or less. Kish also guided an Army defense that held the opposition to 17 points or less 42 times during his tenure at West Point.

DEFENSIVE LINE | 14TH SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

- Group in 2011 constantly held up the point of attack in the trenches and combined for 62 tackles, 11 tackles for loss, four sacks and two forced fumbles.
- Worked around several injuries, but still forged a solid defensive front. By the time the Big 12 title game rolled around, converted defensive end Pryce Macon was a starter. He logged five tackles for loss and three sacks in that game.
- Coached Gerald McCoy in 2009 to second straight All-America season. Group had 25.5 TFLs, 11 sacks and three fumble recoveries.
- Led by All-American Gerald McCoy, the defensive interior was again menacing in 2008. The group had 14.5 sacks and three fumble recoveries.
- Returned the majority of his group in 2007 which resulted in the No. 17 rushing defense in the nation, third in the Big 12. His interior linemen accounted for nine sacks and 22 tackles for a loss. Coached Big 12 Freshman Defensive POY Gerald McCoy.
- Had one of his least experienced groups in 2006, but OU was second in the Big 12 and No. 16 nationally against the rush.
- In 2005, Dusty Dvoracek was a consensus All-Big 12 selection after leading the nation's DTs in tackles for loss with 19. The Sooners ranked No. 4 in rushing defense.
- Despite losing a pair of All-Americans and featuring one transfer and two freshmen in the rotation in 2004, he crafted an interior that showed great improvement.
- In 2003, he coached Tommie Harris, winner of the Lombardi Award, a consensus All-American and finalist for the Nagurski and Bednarik awards. He also coached All-Big 12 DT Dusty Dvoracek.
- OU's linemen had 32 TFL and 15 sacks in 2003.
- Two of his players, Tommie Harris and Kory Klein, earned All-Big 12 honors in 2001.

- In 2000, he had four DL selected to All-Big 12 teams, including first team selection Ryan Fisher.

Prominent Pupils

- Kory Klein (Oklahoma)
2000 second team Freshman All-American, 2001 second team All-Big 12
- Ryan Fisher (Oklahoma)
2000 All-Big 12

Accomplishments as a Player

- A first-round pick (14th overall) of the Miami Dolphins where he played five seasons. He helped the Dolphins post a 48-31 record, make two playoff appearances and advance to the 1985 Super Bowl. Shipp was the Dolphins' leading tackler (79) in 1987 and finished his career in Miami with 231 tackles.
- Played one season with the LA Raiders (1988).
- A standout linebacker at the University of Oklahoma, he starred on Sooners squads that posted a combined 33-14-1 record, won two bowl games and captured the 1980 Big Eight Championship.
- Earned all-conference honors as a junior and senior, and was selected as an All-American by Football News following his junior campaign.
- In the 1982 border clash with Texas, Shipp had 23 tackles, an OU single-game record.
- Totaled 489 total tackles in his career which stands No. 2 at OU. Also owns the single-season record for tackles with 189 during his soph campaign (1981).

Coaching Accomplishments

• The 2011 offensive line gave up just 11 sacks as left guard Gabe Ikard moved to center for seven games due to injuries and earned All-Big 12 honors in the process. OU ranked No. 5 nationally in total offense and passing.

• In 2010, just one season removed from playing tight end, T Eric Mensik earned first-team All-Big 12 honors. The Sooners ranked No. 4 in passing, No. 13 in total and No. 17 in scoring offense nationally.

• Had one returning starter in 2009, Trent Williams, who earned All-America honors. Despite 10 different starters and eight different starting combinations, line ranked No. 24 nationally in sacks allowed with 1.25 per game.

• The 2008 line anchored an offense that produced 7,670 yards, 99 TDs, two 1,000-yard rushers and one 1,000-yard receiver. It also protected Sam Bradford, the Heisman winner, giving up only 13 sacks. Three linemen were named All-Big 12 first team including Outland finalist Duke Robinson and All-American Phil Loadholt.

• His 2007 line gave up just 14 sacks to rank No. 5 nationally. With an average of 1.0 sacks per game, the line broke the school record of 1.21 per game set in 2006. Five linemen received Big 12 honors. Seven of the eight players on the two-deep chart were underclassmen.

• His first OU line included just one senior, yet helped OU to 177.4 rushing yards/game, while surrendering a Big 12-low 1.21 sacks/game (No. 11 nationally). Three different running backs had 100-yard games.

• The 2005 Northwestern team went to the Sun Bowl. The offense was No. 4 nationally in total yards (500.3), No. 7 in passing (306.8), No. 16 in turnover margin (+.75), No. 26 in rushing (193.4) and No. 28 in scoring (33.9).

• The 2005 team featured QB Brett Basanez, who ranked No. 3 in the nation in total offense, while freshman running back Tyrell Sutton ranked No. 8 in rushing yards per game and No. 16 in points per game. WR Shaun Herbert was No. 20 in receptions per game.

• The 2005 team gave up 11 sacks in 512 passing attempts, despite returning only one starter.

• Northwestern had at least one 1,200-yard rusher and one of the nation's top 30 rushers each year from 2002-2005.

• In 2000, Northwestern played Nebraska at the Alamo Bowl. The Wildcats ranked No. 3 in NCAA total offense.

• Every Northwestern senior OL he coached made it NFL.

• Helped '98 Miami (Ohio) team to 10-1 mark.

Oklahoma Athletics Sports Medicine

The University of Oklahoma has a rich five-decade history of setting a standard for sports medicine care, a tradition that continues today.

Head Athletic Trainer Scott Anderson, his staff and the team physicians comprise the professional staff. Anderson was named 2005 Trainer of the Year by the National Athletics Trainers' Association and 2004 Trainer of the Year by the All-American Football Foundation.

Brock Schnebel, M.D., Head Team Physician for the 2000 United States Olympic Team, directs OU's physician staff. Don McGinnis, M.D., serves an Olympic Team assignment in addition to his responsibilities with the Oklahoma Athletics Department.

Phil Adamson, M.D., and Martin Tippie, M.D., complete the Sooners' primary physician staff.

The state-of-the-art Henry J. Freede Sports Medicine Complex in the Barry Switzer Center provides a convenient location for the Sooners to receive their care.

The Sports Medicine Staff provides consistent service on a daily basis which includes injury prevention and acute care, post-injury rehabilitation, x-ray, and physician assessment.

Jim Hillis, a Registered Physical Therapist and Certified/Licensed Athletic Trainer, coordinates all rehabilitation protocols.

The combination of the staff and facility provide the care that is vital to a championship program. OU's facility is equipped with SwimEx aquatic therapy, isokinetic rehabilitation and testing equipment, along with cardiovascular and exercise equipment that offers the ability to manage the multi-level needs of OU's student-athletes.

HISTORY

2012 SIGNING CLASS

With a recruiting class that stretched from coast-to-coast and covered 12 states in total, Oklahoma signed 26 student-athletes to its 2012 signing class. In addition to the 12 states, 11 different positions were covered on the list of 26.

The class, comprised of 19 high school athletes and seven junior college transfers, shapes up to be another promising group for OU Head Coach Bob Stoops.

The state of Texas produced the most signees with seven on the list, followed by the state of Florida with four student-athletes. Oklahoma and California both produced three student-athletes while Ohio produced two. Oklahoma signed one player each from the states of Pennsylvania, Kansas, Mississippi, Missouri, Illinois, Maryland and Nevada.

The greatest emphasis in Stoops' 14th signing class was at wide receiver where Oklahoma signed six student-athletes followed by offensive line with five student-athletes.

The Sooners picked up three cornerbacks, three tight ends, three defensive ends and three running backs. One defensive tackle, one quarterback and one linebacker rounded out the 2012 class.

Six of the new players enrolled early and participated in spring drills at Oklahoma. Defensive back Kass Everett, tight end Brannon Green, defensive end Chaz Nelson, wide receiver Trey Metoyer, defensive tackle Jordan Wade and tight end Taylor McNamara all enrolled at OU in January.

NORMAN, Okla. -- Oklahoma dominated in its season opener, rolling over Tulsa, 47-14. The Sooners sprinted to a 30-0 lead and then coasted home on a night when they rolled up 663 yards of total offense.

The breakout story was running back Dominique Whaley. The walk-on junior carried 18 times for 131 yards and four touchdowns in falling just one TD shy of the NCAA record for rushing scores in a debut. Whaley keyed a 246-yard effort on the ground.

Through the air, Landry Jones was sharp, completing 35-of-47 attempts for 375 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions. Per usual, his favorite target was Ryan Broyles, who hauled in 14 passes for 158 yards and one TD.

Aside from three big plays, Oklahoma's defense was outstanding. The Golden Hurricane picked up nearly 40 percent of its yards (159 of 400) and both touchdowns on those three pass plays.

Frank Alexander logged two pass deflections and one interception, which he returned 27 yards, to go with six tackles.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. -- Kenny Stills reached high to grab a 37-yard touchdown pass from Landry Jones midway through the fourth quarter for the tiebreaking score, and Oklahoma's defense made the last stand as the top-ranked Sooners beat No. 5 Florida State 23-13.

Javon Harris picked off two passes for the Sooners (2-0), who forced three turnovers and had six sacks against two Florida State quarterbacks.

The Seminoles (2-1) played the final 20 minutes without starting quarterback E.J. Manuel, who left in the third with a left shoulder injury.

Backup Clint Trickett kept the Seminoles in it. He hooked up with freshman Rashad Greene for a 56-yard touchdown on a third-and-28 with 9:32 left in the fourth quarter to tie the game at 13.

But on the next possession, Jones went high and deep down the sideline to the 6-foot-1 Stills, who outleaped Greg Reid for the touchdown.

NORMAN, Okla. -- For the first time, Landry Jones found himself leading Oklahoma on Owen Field with another team in the lead.

As it turned out, it wasn't that much different than any other time the top-ranked Sooners play at home.

Jones hooked up with All-American Ryan Broyles for 154 yards and three touchdowns, leading Oklahoma out of a rare deficit at home to beat Missouri 38-28.

The Sooners had gone 20 straight home games without trailing, dating back to 2007, before coming out flat and falling behind 14-3 in the first quarter.

The Sooners (3-0, 1-0 Big 12) roared back with 28 straight points to avenge a loss in Columbia in 2010 when they were first in the BCS standings and moved their home winning streak--the longest in the nation--to 38 straight games.

BALL STATE

OKLAHOMA

NORMAN, Okla. -- Tony Jefferson was starting to think his performance was too good to be true. Fortunately for Oklahoma, it was entirely for real.

Jefferson fueled a second-quarter scoring surge with interceptions on three straight drives, and the second-ranked Sooners geared up for their ensuing rivalry game against Texas by beating Ball State 62-6.

Oklahoma (4-0) made each turnover costly by cashing in for seven points again and again. By the time they were done with the turnover-fed 5 1/2-minute binge, a four-point lead had grown to 32.

Landry Jones threw for 425 yards and five touchdowns -- including scores of 64 yards to Ryan Broyles and 56 yards to Jaz Reynolds a minute apart in the third quarter -- and then Jefferson's mind strayed toward the looming game in Dallas against No. 17 Texas.

DALLAS -- Landry Jones and the Oklahoma Sooners made a strong case to return to the top of the college football poll. The Sooners showed they deserved to be considered the best in the land with a 55-17 thrashing of Texas.

Oklahoma stomped its top rival almost as easily as it did lowly Ball State the previous week, getting three touchdown passes from Jones, a 64-yard touchdown run by Dominique Whaley and three defensive touchdowns.

The Sooners (5-0, 2-0 Big 12) scored the first four times they had the ball. They were up by 24 points at halftime and by 45 midway through the fourth quarter on the way to their most lopsided win in this series since 2003, when they won by a series-record 52 points.

LAWRENCE, Kan. -- Bob Stoops knew that Ryan Broyles was one catch away from becoming the NCAA's career leader, so the Oklahoma coach called for a pass play that sent his All-American wide receiver on a deep post route.

Might as well set the record in style.

The senior hauled in a 57-yard touchdown pass from Landry Jones in the first half, and Broyles finished with 13 catches for a school-record 217 yards and two scores as the third-ranked Sooners rolled to a 47-17 victory over Kansas.

Broyles has 326 catches in his career, and the two touchdown grabs gave him 44. He came into the game tied with former Oklahoma State star Rashaun Woods for the Big 12 record.

Dominique Whaley added 165 yards rushing and a touchdown, and Michael Hunnicutt hit all four of his field-goal attempts for the Sooners.

NORMAN, Okla. -- Seemingly invincible for so long at Owen Field, No. 3 Oklahoma finally proved fallible at home.

Seth Doege threw for 441 yards and connected with Alex Torres on three of his four touchdown passes, and Texas Tech snapped the Sooners' 39-game home winning streak with 41-38 victory.

Doege carved up an Oklahoma defense missing three starters, helping the Red Raiders (5-2, 2-2 Big 12) become the first opponent since TCU in the 2005 season opener to win in Norman. Oklahoma State pulled off the only other previous win against Soops in Norman, in the 2001 regular-season finale.

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- Landry Jones and Ryan Broyles put Oklahoma's season back on track.

Jones threw for a school-record 505 yards and five touchdowns, his All-American wide receiver caught 14 passes for 171 yards and a score, and the 11th-ranked Sooners took out some pent up frustration with a 58-17 thumping of the No. 10 Wildcats.

Their national championship hopes dashed by Texas Tech last week -- along with their 39-game home winning streak -- the Sooners (7-1, 4-1) spoiled the same hopes harbored by Kansas State.

Jones shattered the previous school record for yards passing of 468, which he had shared with Sam Bradford, and moved into first place on the Oklahoma career list with 90 touchdown passes.

NORMAN, Okla. -- No. 6 Oklahoma lost a lot in a victory over Texas A&M.

All-American Ryan Broyles, the NCAA's career leader in receptions, tore the anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee and missed the remainder of the season.

He got hurt while cutting to make his second catch of the game, a 30-yarder that set up one of four third-quarter touchdowns in the Sooners' 41-25 victory.

The Sooners (8-1, 5-1 Big 12) scored on four straight possessions after leading 13-10 at halftime. Texas A&M (5-4, 3-3) had its second-half troubles continue -- the Aggies gave up big second-half leads in its previous three losses.

The Aggies, headed for the Southeastern Conference, won't miss coming to Norman. They're 0-7 on Owen Field during the Bob Stoops era; the previous six losses had come by an average of 41 points.

WACO, Texas -- Robert Griffin and Baylor created even more chaos in the national championship race with a stunning blow against fifth-ranked Oklahoma.

Griffin threw for 479 yards and four touchdowns, including a 34-yarder to Terrence Williams with 8 seconds left and 25th-ranked Baylor beat the Sooners for the first time, 45-38.

The Sooners (8-2, 5-2 Big 12) had overcome a two-touchdown deficit to tie the game on Blake Bell's fourth touchdown run, a 6-yarder with 51 seconds left.

The Bears then went 80 yards in five plays, with Griffin scrambling for runs of 22 and 8 yards before then finding Williams in the back corner of the end zone and throwing before he got knocked down.

NORMAN, Okla. -- With an assist from Mother Nature, Oklahoma (No. 9 BCS, No. 12 AP) got its defense back in order and set up a Bedlam showdown for the Big 12 championship.

Landry Jones threw for 256 yards, Blake Bell punched in two short touchdown runs and the Sooners limited Iowa State to a season-low 245 yards in a 26-6 victory.

Rebounding after allowing a school-record 616 yards allowed a week earlier in a 45-38 loss at Baylor, Oklahoma only let the Cyclones (6-5, 3-5 Big 12) score after James Winchester's snap sailed over the head of punter Tress Way in the first quarter.

Trey Franks finished with 88 yards rushing on two long reverses to set up scores for the Sooners (9-2, 6-2), and Michael Hunnicutt matched his career-high with four field goals on a difficult day for offense.

The Cyclones didn't sustain a drive of longer than 35 yards and got their only points on Jared Barnett's 10-yard touchdown pass to Albert Gary one play after Oklahoma's botched punt.

STILLWATER, Okla. -- Oklahoma's eight-game winning streak over in-state rival Oklahoma State came to an end as it fell in Stillwater, 44-10.

The Sooners got their only points on Michael Hunnicutt's 48-yard field goal at the end of the first half and Blake Bell's 28-yard TD scamper with 2:25 left in the game.

It ended up as Oklahoma's most lopsided defeat since losing the 2005 Orange Bowl against Southern California.

OKLAHOMA

31

TEMPE, Ariz. -- Oklahoma was gaining yards in bits instead of its usual chunks. Its defense was solid before giving up a pair of touchdowns in the fourth quarter to lose nearly all of a 21-point lead.

Then a camera fell from the sky.

It wasn't always pretty, but the Sooners grinded out a win, closing out a difficult year that included the death of a teammate.

Blake Bell ran for his third touchdown in the closing seconds and Oklahoma (No. 14 BCS, No. 19 AP) survived a late rally, not to mention the crashing camera, to beat Iowa 31-14 in the Insight Bowl on Friday night.

Once considered national-title contenders, the Sooners held off the gritty Hawkeyes, capping a painful year that started with the death of linebacker Austin Box in the offseason.

Landry Jones threw for 161 yards with a touchdown and an interception, and Bell put the game away with a 21-yard touchdown run with 45 seconds left.

GAME SUMMARY

This was the first Orange Bowl that featured two national powers as both teams were undefeated and untied. To lure the Sooners to Miami, the Orange Bowl director circled the Norman campus, leaving chalk messages that promoted the game. Tennessee's powerful ground attack was too much for the Sooners, winners of 14 straight, as the Volunteers raced to a 17-0 victory in the fifth annual Orange Bowl. The victory was the 13th straight for the Vols, who were coached by Major Bob Neyland. The game was considered to be the roughest of all bowl games played that year as both teams combined for more than 200 yards in penalties.

GAME SUMMARY

In a game that featured two of the marquee names in college football at the time, Oklahoma blasted North Carolina State 34-13 before an overflowing crowd of 10,000 in the second annual Gator Bowl. The Sooners did not take long to get on the scoreboard, two minutes to be exact, on an Eddie Davis one-yard plunge. N.C. State roared back to even the score, but OU put the game out of reach by scoring 20 second-quarter points and coasted from there. The marquee matchup was made possible because of the Tournament of Roses committee decision to match representatives of the Western Athletic Conference (now the Pac Ten) and the Big Nine, (now the Big 10). This agreement made it possible for teams not waiting for a possible Rose Bowl berth to be picked by the Gator Bowl committee.

GAME SUMMARY

It was legendary Coach Bud Wilkinson's first bowl game as the fifth-ranked and underdog Sooners took on the third-ranked and unbeaten North Carolina Tar Heels accompanied by their All-America tailback Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice. Oklahoma upset the 'Heels with the big play coming in the first quarter as linebacker Myrle Greathouse intercepted a pass and returned it 70 yards to set up Jack Mitchell's one-yard run. The Sooners never trailed after that.

Maryland came into the game as the regular season national champion with OU rated fourth. Twice, the Terrapins had first down with the ball inside the 10-yard line, and both times the Sooner defense refused to allow any points on the scoreboard. Sooner tailback Larry Grigg scored the only TD of the game with a 25-yard scamper in the second period. The 1954 bowl game was the first bowl game in which the players had to play both ways. Sooner hero Grigg also played defensive back. |                       |        |

However, Kentucky, coached by Paul "Bear" Bryant, upset the Sooners and broke a 31-game OU winning streak. OU lost a bowl-record five fumbles in falling behind 13-0. A fourth quarter 17-yard TD pass by Billy Vessels narrowed the margin but a come-from-behind effort was foiled by an interception in the final minute of play. |                          |        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                       |        |

| Wilkinson's team was rated second in the nation and it was the first one of his squads to post an undefeated record, 10-0. The game was one-sided and still stands as the largest margin of victory in OU bowl history. One of the many Sooner big plays was Leon Heath's OU bowl record-breaking 86-yard TD run. The game was marred by an early-week incident where a former LSU player was caught spying on Sooner practices. It was the only time in Wilkinson's career that he publicly blasted an opponent. |                         |        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                          |        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                       |        |

GAME SUMMARY

This time it was OU that carried the number one ranking into the game with Maryland ranked third, having lost just one game during the regular season. The Sooners, a perfect 10-0 and in the midst of their 47-game winning streak, trailed 6-0 at the half. The Sooners went into their famous "fast break offense" in the second half and scored three times to post their second Orange Bowl victory. It was the second national championship for Oklahoma.

GAME SUMMARY

The 47-game winning streak had been broken earlier in the season, but the Sooners still came into the game ranked No. 4. Duke, the ACC winner, was unranked. Oklahoma got only six first downs, lost the total offense battle (328 yards to 279) and picked up an OU bowl-record 165 yards in penalties, but used two interception returns for TD, including an OU bowl record 94-yarder from David Baker, two fumble recoveries, a blocked punt and a bad snap from center to win going away. The 48 points marked an all-time OU bowl record that stood until matched by the '91 Gator Bowl team.

GAME SUMMARY

Waiving the "no repeat rule" because of a new bowl contract, the Sooners played in their second consecutive Orange Bowl, defeating the Orangemen from Syracuse, 21-6. The Sooners were led by Prentice Gautt who scored the game's first TD on the second play of the game with a 42-yard run. Gautt averaged an OU bowl-record 15.7-yards every time he touched the ball. It was the Sooners' fourth straight Orange Bowl victory. Oklahoma ended the season ranked fifth in the nation, its only loss a one-pointer to Texas.

GAME SUMMARY

It was Bud Wilkinson's last bowl game. Paul "Bear" Bryant, coaching his alma mater, repeated his victory as the coach at Kentucky in the 1951 Sugar Bowl with a 17-0 triumph. LB Lee Roy Jordan, the MVP, and quarterback Joe Namath led the Crimson Tide to the victory. The Sooners had first and goal twice in the first half, but fumbles ended OU's chances and the Sooners never really threatened again. The lone highlight for the Oklahoma team was a visit by President John F. Kennedy to the Sooners' locker room. Although President Kennedy claimed neutrality, it was obvious by the grimace on his face he was backing the Oklahoma team.

GAME SUMMARY

Florida State used a sophisticated passing attack to win easily. To add insult to injury, four of the Seminoles' TD passes were thrown on fourth-down plays. Four Oklahoma players had been found ineligible the night before the game because they had signed pro contracts which was in violation of NCAA rules. FSU wide receiver Fred Biletnikoff finished the game with 13 receptions for 192 yards and four TDs.

GAME SUMMARY

Oklahoma had won the Big Eight title in Chuck Fairbank's first year as head coach. Although a slight underdog to the Vols, OU broke out to a 19-0 halftime lead. Tennessee came back to narrow the Sooner lead to 19-17 before Oklahoma defensive back Bob Stephenson picked off a pass and raced 24 yards to give OU an all important insurance TD. The Sooners desperately needed the insurance when Dewey Warren plowed in from a yard out. The Volunteers then missed a potential game-winning field goal as the gun went off.

GAME SUMMARY

OU led 20-6 entering the fourth but SMU's Chuck Hixson, passing for 281 yards, led a comeback that produced a 28-21 lead. OU, without injured QB Bob Warmack, narrowed the margin to one on a pass from Mickey Ripley, but missed a two-point conversion for the lead. One last chance came after recovering an on-side kick but a field goal attempt from inside the SMU 30-yard line went wide as time expired.

GAME SUMMARY

The emergence of the wishbone and Greg Pruitt were late-season developments that propelled OU to four wins in its last five games and a postseason invitation. The Sooners had switched to the wishbone and they were running it to perfection by the time the bowl game rolled around. The "bone" produced 349 yards rushing and touchdown runs of 58 and 25 yards by All-American Greg Pruitt, but the Sooners still needed a late field goal by Bruce Derr to force the tie with the Crimson Tide.

GAME SUMMARY

OU had lost only one game, the "Game of the Century" to Nebraska on Thanksgiving Day. Auburn featured Heisman Trophy winner Pat Sullivan. It was run versus pass, with OU's runners prevailing. The Sooners roared to a 31-0 halftime lead and amassed 439 yards rushing by game's end, a new Oklahoma and Sugar Bowl record. QB Jack Mildren, playing in the final game of his brilliant college career, scored a Sugar Bowl record three times. OU finished second in the polls to Nebraska with another Big Eight team, Colorado, finishing third.

Ohio State, the No. 1-ranked team in the country, had lost in the Rose Bowl earlier in the afternoon. The upset gave the Sooners an opportunity to win the national championship if they could beat the Michigan Wolverines coached by Bo Schembechler. A 39-yard end around by Billy Brooks and a nine-yard keeper by Steve Davis were enough for a 14-6 victory and a fifth national championship. |                        |           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | UW - Coleman, 8         |           |

| Played for the first time on New Year's Eve, the Sugar Bowl brought the Big Eight Champion Sooners to do battle with Joe Paterno's fifth-ranked Nittany Lions. The Sooner defense posted a shutout while allowing only 11 first downs and 49 yards rushing the entire game. It was the first year that freshmen were eligible and Sooner wide receiver Tinker Owens celebrated with five catches, good for 132 yards and one touchdown. It was also the last game for Sooner head coach Chuck Fairbanks who left for the NFL the following spring. |                             |            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                        |           | This was a mismatch that was decided early on as Oklahoma rolled up almost 500 yards in total offense and cruised to an easy victory. The Sooners led 27-0 at the third quarter mark before the reserves added two more scores in the fourth period. OU did not punt the entire game, the only time in Sooner bowl history that had happened. |                         |           |

GAME SUMMARY

Called by Barry Switzer, "the most disappointing loss of my career," OU was a victim of one of the biggest upsets in bowl history. When Notre Dame downed Texas in the Cotton Bowl, OU was in the running for a national championship. A big win over Arkansas might impress the voters and secure the crown for the Sooners. As a result, Switzer went against his own strategy by choosing to receive the opening kickoff rather than play defense. OU fumbled inside its own 10 on the third play of the game and Arkansas immediately scored for a lead it never relinquished.

GAME SUMMARY

A truly amazing turn of events produced a rematch after Nebraska's victory in November. The Sooners, ranked No. 1 with one loss, had lost a heartbreaker to the Cornhuskers, 17-14, on a late fumble at the NU three-yard line. When the Huskers were upset the following week by Missouri, producing a Big Eight Championship tie, the Orange Bowl officials came up with the idea of a rematch, much to the Sooners' joy and the Huskers' shock. It went as predicted: an Oklahoma victory.

GAME SUMMARY

The Big Eight Champion Sooners met an undefeated Florida State team on New Year's night. After the Seminoles took a 7-0 first-quarter lead, OU unleashed 17 second-quarter points to take the lead for good. J.C. Watts was named Orange Bowl MVP on offense. He scored on a 61-yard option play and rushed for more than 100 yards. Bud Hebert, who recorded three interceptions, earned the award on defense. Billy Sims wrapped up his brilliant collegiate career scoring on a 22-yard pitch from Watts. Oklahoma finished third in the country and won the Orange Bowl for the third time in five tries under Switzer. The Seminoles crossed midfield only two times after the first quarter and never passed the 35-yard line.

| GAME SUMMARYThis contest featured a rematch with a great deal more excitement as OU turned to a foreign weapon, the pass, to notch its third straight Orange Bowl win. QB J.C. Watts was chosen MVP and with good reason. The Sooners used a fourth-quarter TD to break a 10-10 tie and seemingly gain control. OU was forced to start deep in its own territory after the kickoff with little time left. Watts went to work and passed the Sooners to the 11-yard line where he hit Steve Rhodes with a TD strike to pull the Sooners to within one with less than a minute to go. Watts then proceeded to hit tight end Forrest Valora for the two-point conversion that gave the Sooners their ninth Orange Bowl victory, including three in the last four years. Oklahoma finished ranked No. 3 in the nation. |         |         | GAME SUMMARYA season that produced four losses for Oklahoma ended on a bright note with an easier than anticipated 40-14 victory over Houston. MVP Darrell Shepard, who began his career at the UH, scored two touchdowns against his former team. The Sooners scored 30 fourth-quarter points to turn a seat squirmer into a rout. Freshman Fred Sims rolled up 181 yards rushing in the game after rushing for just 179 in the regular season. |    |     | GAME SUMMARYThe magic of Marcus Dupree ran out as the Sun Devils rallied for 14 fourth-quarter points to win the first meeting between the two. Dupree ran wild early, amassing 239 yards before recurrent leg injuries forced him out in the third quarter. The turning point came when Oklahoma punter Michael Keeling could not get his punt away and was forced to throw an illegal pass. The Devils took over at the OU 43 and later scored when Darryl Clack raced 15 yards for at TD. |    |    |              |        |        |               |     |    |                 |        |         |             |        |        |              |     |     |                 |      |      |               |        |        |                  |      |      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |  |  |  |    |    |             |    |    |              |        |        |               |     |   |                 |         |       |             |        |        |              |     |     |                 |      |      |               |        |        |                  |      |      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |  |  |     |    |             |    |    |              |        |        |               |     |    |                 |         |        |             |        |        |              |     |     |                 |      |      |               |        |        |                    |       |       |                  |      |      |                |     |     |

GAME SUMMARY

Brigham Young was No. 1 in the polls, but Sooners head coach Barry Switzer had argued that the Sooners should be No. 1 because of a tougher schedule. A win over a fine Husky team would solidify that claim. However, Washington refused to cooperate and turned a 17-14 fourth-quarter deficit into a 28-17 triumph. The game was marked by a bizarre incident when, after an Oklahoma field goal, the Sooner Schooner raced onto the field as called for by tradition. The only problem was the drivers apparently had not received the proper permission for the trip. The team was penalized 15 yards and the loss of the three points.

GAME SUMMARY

A swarming defense, a record field goal performance and two big plays helped the Oklahoma Sooners defeat Penn State to capture both the Orange Bowl and the program's sixth national championship. Butkus Award winner Brian Bosworth had 13 solo tackles and the Oklahoma secondary picked off four Penn State passes to thwart any rallies. Tim Lashar booted an Orange Bowl record four field goals to give the Sooners an early lead. Lydell Carr and Keith Jackson then provided big plays, a 61-yard jaunt by Carr and a 71-yard pass play from Jamelle Holieway to Jackson.

GAME SUMMARY

After nine years, Barry Switzer avenged his most embarrassing loss, coaching Oklahoma to a 42-8 rout of Arkansas. LB Danté Jones, playing in place of All-American Brian Bosworth, led the defense which held the Hogs to just 48 rushing yards. Spencer Tillman gained 109 yards rushing on just seven carries. His totals included a 77-yard TD to give OU the early 7-0 lead. Todd Thomsen set an Orange Bowl record with five punts for a 47.6-yard average.

On the Sooners' last possession, OU took the ball over on its own 20 with 2:59 left on the clock. QB Jamelle Holieway, playing in his final game, scampered 11 yards on a fourth down to keep the drive alive. Holieway then completed passes of five, seven, four, 12, seven, 12 and 13 yards, to get OU inside the Tiger 14 with 12 seconds remaining. Two desperation heaves by Holieway dropped incomplete to end all Oklahoma hopes. |        |          | UVA - Mundy, 3-44                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |         |            |
| The Sooners' hopes of winning their seventh national championship were put to rest by Miami, 20-14. The Hurricanes took the opening kickoff and moved 65 yards in eight plays for a 7-0 lead, then never looked back. The Sooner offense, which led the nation in six categories, was held to only 179 rushing yards and 255 overall. Late in the fourth quarter, the Sooners scored on a 29-yard fumblerooski which gave the Oklahoma faithful a flicker of hope. The Hurricane defenders blew it out when they sacked quarterback Charles Thompson and caused a fumble to ensure the victory. |        |           | GAME SUMMARY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |        |          | Tackles: OU - Wilson, 8                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |         |            |

Gundy was 25-of-31, including 11 straight completions, for 329 yards and two TDs. The Sooners scored touchdowns on four of their first five possessions to put the game out of reach before halftime. The OU defense never allowed the Cavaliers inside the 20. The 48 points tied the OU bowl game record (48-21 over Duke in the '58 Orange Bowl). |         |            |

| QB Cale Gundy brilliantly guided Oklahoma's offense and the Sooner defense slowed Doak Walker Award winner Bam Morris as OU claimed a 41-10 win. The Sooners scored the first two times they had the ball. Another Gundy TD pass boosted the lead to 21-3. Just over a minute later, the game MVP hit again and Oklahoma was cruising at halftime 28-3. Meanwhile, the nation's second-leading rusher was held to just 95 yards by the Sooner defense. |                         |         | After completing its worst regular season in 30 years, and playing under a head coach who had resigned, Oklahoma ended its season with a dismal 31-6 loss. The Sooners started reserve QB Terence Brown, who had completed one of three passes on the season. Season starter Garrick McGee had contracted spinal meningitis and was unable to play. OU's defense surrendered 485 yards and four touchdowns through the air. BYU's John Walsh set Copper Bowl records for completions (31) and TD passes (4). Sooner linebacker Broderick Simpson was Defensive Player of the Game with 13 tackles, a sack and a broken up pass. |                          |         | In the final college game of the 20th century, Ole Miss topped Oklahoma in a thriller, 27-25. OU quarterback and game offensive MVP Josh Heupel set school and Independence Bowl records for attempts, completions and yards, and tied the record for touchdowns. Jarraill Jackson tied the Independence Bowl record for receptions with 10. Ole Miss' Les Binkley kicked a 39-yard field goal for the win on the last play of the game. |                          |         |    |   |    |

Oklahoma's defense was that much better. The final statistics were as chilling and stark as the weather. The Razorbacks, who reached OU territory just two times the entire game, could muster only 13 passing yards on two completions while their rushing attempts (42) outnumbered their rushing yards (37). Sooner defenders tied a school and Cotton Bowl record with a whopping nine sacks. Late in the first quarter, Oklahoma set sail on a 13-play, 63-yard scoring drive that culminated in a one-yard sneak by quarterback Nate Hybl. Along the way, the Sooners converted two third downs and one fourth. The resulting touchdown and PAT made the rest of the afternoon academic. OU added a 32-yard field goal by Tim Duncan in the third frame to build a 10-0 advantage that felt like twice that given the play of the defense. Arkansas, aided by penalties, finally scratched out a field goal, but no serious threat to the outcome was ever mounted. |         |        | Receiving: OU - Peoples, 3-80                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |         |         |
| Top-ranked Oklahoma used a smothering defense to shut down the third-ranked Seminoles and Josh Heupel generated enough offense to lead OU to a perfect season. As the nation's only unbeaten team, the Sooners were the unanimous winners of the AP media poll. They were automatically crowned national champions in the coaches' poll under the Bowl Championship Series format. Led by Orange Bowl MVP Torrance Marshall, the Sooners time and again forced Florida State's Chris Weinke into bad decisions. Tim Duncan kicked two field goals and Quentin Griffin scored the clinching touchdown on a 10-yard run up the middle with 8:30 to play. Florida State avoided its first shutout in 12 seasons when Stanford Samuels tackled OU punter Jeff Ferguson in the end zone for a safety with 55 seconds remaining. |         |         | GAME SUMMARY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |         |        | WSU - Riley, 9-139                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |         |         |

OU's defense logged six sacks and two interceptions to set the tone. Rose Bowl MVP Nate Hybl tossed two TD passes and Quentin Griffin rushed for 144 yards as the OU offense wore down the Cougars. Oklahoma became just the fourth school in college football history to win the four BCS games and the Cotton Bowl. |         |         |

GAME SUMMARY

Riding its defense, LSU won the BCS title, 21-14. Oklahoma entered the game as the nation's top scoring offense, but struggled against the Tigers. The OU defense gave a good account too, surrendering 64 of LSU's 312 total yards on a non-scoring run on the Tigers' first snap. Still, it was the LSU defenders who stole the show. DE Marcus Spears returned an interception 20 yards for a TD on the first series of the second half and seemingly opened the floodgates. But OU stiffened and got its running game untracked. After pulling within seven at 21-14, the Sooners made another push to the LSU 12, but missed on four straight pass attempts, the last one with just 2:46 left. The crowd was the largest ever to see a sporting event in the Louisiana Superdome.

GAME SUMMARY

Oklahoma linebacker Clint Ingram made a leaping interception of Oregon quarterback Brady Leaf's pass at the 10-yard line with 33 seconds left to preserve the Sooners' 17-14 upset of the No. 6 Oregon Ducks. Rhett Bomar threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to fullback J.D. Runnels for a 10-7 Oklahoma lead with 9:20 to play in the third quarter. Late in the third, Adrian Peterson's backup, Kejuan Jones, scored on an 8-yard run to make it 17-7. Peterson softened the Ducks with three bruising carries on the drive for 36 yards, including a 20-yard gain when he leveled safety J.D. Nelson.

GAME SUMMARY

Playing in their third national title game in six years, the No. 1-ranked Oklahoma Sooners were upset in their opponent's backyard as the No. 2 Florida Gators prevailed, 24-14. Tied at halftime, Florida outscored Oklahoma 17-7 in the second half despite the 110-yard rushing effort by Chris Brown and the 256 yards of passing from Heisman Trophy winner Sam Bradford. Oklahoma tight end Jermaine Gresham led all receivers with eight catches, including two for TDs. OU was unable to overcome two costly stops inside the 10-yard line and two interceptions that were initially touched by Oklahoma receivers.

GAME SUMMARY

Oklahoma won its 10th game of the year for a national-leading 33rd 10 win season as the Sooners grounded out a 31-14 win over Iowa. Oklahoma led at the half, 14-0, behind two rushing touchdowns from backup quarterback Blake Bell. Jamell Fleming earned his second straight defensive MVP in a bowl game with an interception that led to an OU touchdown while Landry Jones moved into a tie for most experienced quarterback in OU history with his 37th career start at the position.

1952 ★ HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER ★ BILLY VESSELS

Billy "Curly" Vessels was the man who started it all. The first Sooner to win college football's most prestigious individual achievement award, Vessels led the Sooners to a 26-4-1 record during his tenure.

The 1950 Sooners, under the direction of head coach Bud Wilkinson, went 10-1 to give the Sooners their first of seven national championships. As a sophomore, Vessels started on the 1950 squad, scoring 15 touchdowns.

But Vessels' most successful individual season came during his senior campaign when he won the Heisman Trophy. Vessels rushed for 1,072 yards on 167 carries and scored 17 touchdowns.

Creating a new meaning for the word "versatile," the Cleveland, Okla., slasher was part of every phase of the Sooner offensive attack. Vessels was even a threat from above. "Curly" connected on seven passes for two touchdowns in 1952.

The 1952 Sooners went 8-1-1, finishing fourth in the nation, and won Oklahoma's ninth conference title. OU opened with a 21-21 tie with Colorado and then reeled off five straight wins, averaging 46 points a game. OU dropped a 27-21 decision to Notre Dame and then finished strong by sweeping the last three games.

In 1953, Vessels turned pro for the Edmonton Eskimos and won the Schenley Award as the top player in Canada. Vessels then served as an officer in the U.S. Army. Vessels was elected to the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame in 1974.

1969 ★ HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER ★ STEVE OWENS

Oklahoma's Steve Owens was a 6-2, 215-pound powerhouse from Miami, Okla., who ravaged defenses from 1967-69, setting four conference records of the day.

OU's workhorse carried the ball 358 times in 1969 for 1,523 yards while scoring 23 touchdowns (another school record). Playing on a 1969 squad that had been hurt badly by graduation in 1968, Owens carried the load for the Sooner offense.

Owens had two 200-plus yard games while leading the Sooners to a 6-4 season. Spurred by Owens' effort, Oklahoma averaged 28.5 points a game in 1969.

The great career of Steve Owens left a mark on the OU record book. Owens holds five Sooner records. He is the school's all-time leading scorer with 57 touchdowns during his career.

Owens holds the record for the most carries in a game (55) and career (958). He finished his career with 4,041 yards on the ground, the third most in school history.

Detroit drafted Owens in the first round. He was the first Lion to gain over 1,000 yards in a season and was an All-Pro selection in 1971 and 1972.

In 1991, Owens was named to the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame and was the Walter Camp Foundation Alumnus of the Year. Owens was inducted into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor in 1992.

1978 ★ HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER ★ BILLY SIMS

Billy Sims, a 6-0, 205-pound running back from Hooks, Texas, swept through defenses like a tornado flying across the Oklahoma landscape.

He set a Big Eight single-season rushing record in 1978 with 1,896 yards on 256 carries. Sims led the nation in rushing, averaging more than 7.0 yards per carry. He topped the 200-yard mark in four different games (a school best) during the 1978 season.

Sims led the Sooners to an 11-1 record, Orange Bowl championship and third-place finish in the final poll. OU opened with a 35-29 win over Stanford and then crushed West Virginia and Rice by a combined score of 118-17.

The Sooners rolled over Texas and the first five games of the conference schedule heading into the Nebraska game. Sims ran for 153 yards, but it was not enough as the Sooners fell, 17-14.

OU responded by clubbing Oklahoma State, 62-7, and then was rematched with the Cornhuskers in the Orange Bowl. OU edged Nebraska 31-24 in the second meeting between the top-10 schools.

Sims is second in the OU record books for rushing yards in a season (1,896), most 200-yard games in a season (4) and a career (7). He finished his career with 4,118 yards and stands first on the all-time rushing list.

2003 ★ HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER ★ JASON WHITE

OU quarterback Jason White became the trigger man for the country's most potent offensive attack. At a school where the points have flowed like an Oklahoma gusher, White led the OU team that outscored all of its predecessors (601 total points).

He did so with uncanny accuracy, especially on deep throws, and a touchdown to interception ratio (four to one), so gaudy that it read like a typographical error.

White set school records for touchdown passes in a season (40) and game (5, twice). His season passing total ranked No. 2 at OU. He was No. 4 nationally in touchdown percentage (8.87), No. 7 in passing efficiency (158.11), No. 18 in interception percentage (2.22) and No. 22 in total offense (264.0).

The outpouring of recognition was impressive. White captured player of the year honors from the Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News and CNN.com. He also won the Davey O'Brien Award and the Jim Thorpe Courage Award.

White returned for another season after his Heisman campaign and finished third in the voting. It was an unprecedented finish by one school when his teammate Adrian Peterson finished second.

2008 ★ HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER ★ SAM BRADFORD

As the leader of the most potent and highest scoring offense in NCAA history, 716 points, Sam Bradford rewrote the Oklahoma record books on a continual basis throughout the 2008 season while lighting up scoreboards like an employee of General Electric.

Known for his poise in the pocket and pinpoint accuracy, Bradford posted one of best ever touchdown-to-interception ratios, 6.25-to-1, in the history of college football.

When the dust had settled on the 2008 season, Bradford led the nation in passing efficiency and touchdowns, was No. 3 nationally in passing yards, set the Oklahoma season records for yards, touchdowns, passing efficiency, 200-yard games, 300-yard games, and 400-yard games along with breaking the career record for TD passes.

Bradford threw for at least four touchdown passes in eight games, tossing five scoring strikes in four different games. In addition, Bradford surpassed Florida's Rex Grossman with the most touchdowns through the freshman and sophomore years with 82.

In one of the closest Heisman races in recent history, Bradford held off fellow quarterbacks Colt McCoy and Tim Tebow to become the fifth winner in program history.

Bradford also brought home the Associated Press Player of the Year, Davey O'Brien, Sammy Baugh and Chic Harley awards while being named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year by the league coaches. The AP and The Sporting News named Bradford first team All-American

OU All-Americans Since 2000

Oklahoma players have earned All-America honors 33 times during head coach Bob Stoops' 13-year tenure in Norman (an average of nearly three per year). The total includes 16 players from the defense, 15 players on offense and two from the special teams.

From Josh Heupel and J.T. Thatcher in 2000 to Ryan Broyles in 2011, Stoops has coached an athlete into earning All-America status every year but 2005.

During that span, 16 Sooners have been named consensus All-Americans on 21 occasions.

Eight sooners have received multiple All-America honors under Stoops' watch. Ryan Broyles, Gerald McCoy, Duke Robinson, Jammal Brown, Rocky Calmus, Tommie Harris, Teddy Lehman and Roy Williams have each garnered the honor twice in their respective careers.

Stoops' most fruitful year? 2003. Seven Sooners were hand picked to All-America teams, five earned consensus honors. Generally considered the most loaded squad at OU under Stoops, the 2003 group marked the largest pack of All-Americans since 1974 when eight OU athletes were named All-Americans, including five that were consensus.

Showing versatility, players at OU under Stoops have earned All-America honors at 14 different positions.

2010 & 2011 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ RYAN BROYLES ★ WR

A hometown product from Norman, Ryan Broyles rewrote the receiving section of the Oklahoma record books in his career. When the dust had settled on the season, Broyles held eight of the nine major receiving records in Oklahoma history, spanning from game records to career records.

As a junior, he became just the third NCAA statistical champion in Oklahoma history as he led the nation with 9.36 receptions per game. He was also tops in total receptions with 131, 20 more than the next closest player.

Broyles' senior year saw the local receiver change the NCAA record books as he became the all-time receptions leader in college football history with his 349th reception, fittingly on a 57-yard touchdown pass at Kansas.

2010 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ QUINTON CARTER ★ S

One of the nicest guys off the field, Quinton Carter was anything but on the field to opposing offensive players. The safety from Las Vegas, Nev., was known for his ability to patrol passing lanes while delivering punishing hits to ballcarriers.

As much as he was known on the field, Carter was also well known off the field and in the community. Having started a foundation during his collegiate playing career, Carter was awarded the Wooden Citizenship Cup and was named to the American Football Coaches Association 11-member Good Works Team.

Despite only starting for two seasons, Carter is one of just two defensive backs in Oklahoma history with two seasons of at least 88 tackles and the only player to accomplish the feat in back-to-back seasons.

2009 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ SAM BRADFORD ★ QB

As the leader of the most potent and highest scoring offense in NCAA history, 716 points, Sam Bradford rewrote the Oklahoma record books on a continual basis throughout the 2008 season while lighting up scoreboards like an employee of General Electric.

Known for his poise in the pocket and pinpoint accuracy, Bradford posted one of best ever touchdown-to-interception ratios, 6.25-to-1, in the history of college football.

When the dust had settled on the 2008 season, Bradford led the nation in passing efficiency and touchdowns, was No. 3 nationally in passing yards, set the Oklahoma season records for yards, touchdowns, passing efficiency, 200-yard games, 300-yard games, and 400-yard games along with breaking the career record for TD passes.

2009 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ TRENT WILLIAMS ★ OT

A consensus All-American in 2009, Trent Williams earned the reputation as one of the most versatile offensive lineman to play on Owen Field.

Named first team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association, Associated Press, and the Walter Camp Foundation and first team All-Big 12 by six organizations, Williams was the ringleader of the Oklahoma offensive line in 2009.

After starting at right tackle for the better part of his first three collegiate years, Williams slid across the line his final year to protect the blind side of Sam Bradford and Landry Jones.

2008 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ JERMAINE GRESHAM ★ TE

The first tight end to earn All-America honors under Bob Stoops, Jermaine Gresham turned in a record-setting season in 2008 when he was a finalist for the Mackey Award and a member of The Sporting News All-America team.

A matchup nightmare for opposing defensive coordinators, Gresham had more TDs (14) and receiving yards (950) in a season than any other tight end in program history.

Named first team All-Big 12 by the conference coaches, Gresham exceeded 90 yards in five games and five receptions in eight games. When the team needed it the most, Gresham performed, racking up 25 catches, 302 yards and four touchdowns in the final three games of the season.

2008 & 2009 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ GERALD MCCOY ★ DT

With the habit of collapsing the opposing team's pocket attacking through the interior of the line, it was no surprise that Gerald McCoy was named an All-American in 2008 by both The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated.

One year later the Oklahoma City native followed up the performance by becoming Oklahoma's latest consensus All-American and the 35th two-time All-American in OU history.

Both years saw McCoy as the top anchor of the Sooners' defensive tackle rotation, leading the group and finishing second on the team each year in sacks.

McCoy's presence was never more felt than in the 2009 FedEx BCS National Championship game where he constantly harassed the Florida offense while grabbing his first career interception.

2007 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ CURTIS LOFTON ★ LB

For a definition of a breakout season, see Curtis Lofton, 2007.

In his first season atop the depth chart, the junior from Kingfisher, Okla., put together one of the top seasons ever for an Oklahoma linebacker and was rewarded with a consensus All-American tag.

Lofton led Oklahoma with 156 tackles, sixth-best in program history, and established a school record with nine double-digit tackles including a career-high 18 tackles in the team's first meeting against Missouri.

The 2007 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, Lofton had a knack for forcing critical turnovers against big time opponents, never more evident than his interception of Missouri's Chase Daniel in the Big 12 Championship.

The one season of stardom paid off for Lofton, as the linebacker was OU's first selection in the 2008 NFL Draft, going in the third round to the Atlanta Falcons.

2008 & 2007 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ DUKE ROBINSON ★ OG

A consensus All-American in both 2007 and 2008, Duke Robinson built a reputation as one of the best offensive linemen to pass through Norman.

A 2008 Outland Award finalist, Robinson became a two-time consensus All-American by being named a first team member to four All-America teams (Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and the Walter Camp Foundation) along with first team All-Big 12 honors from five outlets.

Robinson was a first team member of four All-America teams in 2007 (AP, American Football Coaches' Association, The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated), Robinson also earned first team All-Big 12 honors from eight different outlets.

The Atlanta, Ga., native took to the field early, playing in 10 games as a true freshman. From blowing open holes for Adrian Peterson to giving Sam Bradford time in the pocket, the versatile Robinson has proved his worth as a member of three consecutive Big 12 Championship teams.

2006 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ RUFUS ALEXANDER ★ LB

Linebacker Rufus Alexander was named first team All-America by the American Football Coaches' Association at the conclusion of the 2006 season.

The Baton Rouge, La., native led the Sooner defense in 2006 with 118 tackles (75 solo), including 12 for loss (-43 yards). Alexander was also credited with 3.5 quarterback sacks, four forced fumbles (two recoveries) and an interception.

Alexander had 36 starts in his career, including every game of the 2006 and 2005 seasons. He played in 39 total games for the Sooners from 2003-06 after redshirting in 2002. The 2006 Big 12 Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Alexander became the first OU player to lead the team in tackles in back-to-back seasons since Rocky Calmus did so in three consecutive seasons from 1999-2001.

2004 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ ADRIAN PETERSON ★ RB

The best season ever by a freshman? The argument could be made. Adrian Peterson set an NCAA freshman rushing record for most rushing yards with the third-highest figure in the nation for the season. He also eclipsed the OU standard for most rushing yards in a season.

On the awards circuit, Peterson had the highest finish ever by a freshman in the Heisman voting (second) and was the first freshman to be named a finalist for the Doak Walker Award. He was a consensus All-American.

Peterson's durability was surprising for a freshman. He led the nation with 339 rushing attempts and went over 100 yards in 11 of 13 games, including his debut. A thundering power back, he also had eight bursts of 35 yards or longer and 44 of 10 or more.

Peterson broke three NCAA freshman rushing records: most consecutive 100-yard rushing games (9), most total 100-yard rushing games (11) and most rushing attempts by a freshman with 314.

2004 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ DAN CODY ★ DE

Dan Cody was so destructive as a senior that OU coaches devised a special position for him. Cody, at times, stood up from his defensive end spot to play a spinner role. In that capacity, he roamed the defensive front and menaced opposing offenses. At season's end, he had the top sack total in the Big 12 with 10 and a spot on the FWAA's All-America team. Cody was a two-time finalist for the Hendricks Award who was noted for his all-out effort. At Texas A&M, he blacked out while exhorting teammates, then returned to the game.

2004 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ VINCE CARTER ★ C

A two-time finalist for the Rimington Award as the nation's top center, Vince Carter was a four-year fixture at Oklahoma. He was rewarded as a senior when he was named to the prestigious Walter Camp All-America team.

The Waco, Texas, native stepped in as a freshman when Josh Smith went out with an injury in 2001 and went on to start at center for the Sooners for four seasons.

He earned first team All-Big 12 Conference honors in 2003 and 2004.

As a senior in 2004, Carter helped pave the way for running back Adrian Peterson and protected quarterback Jason White -- both Heisman Trophy finalists -- as the Sooners completed a second consecutive undefeated regular season and won the 2004 Big 12 Conference Championship.

2004 & 2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ JAMMAL BROWN ★ OT

A dominating senior season led to Jammal Brown earning Oklahoma's fourth Outland Trophy. He followed that up as a first-round pick (No. 13) by the New Orleans Saints.

He did not allow a sack or hurry during the regular season while logging a team-best 130 knockdown blocks. At season's end Brown was a consensus All-American.

As a junior, Brown had the highest line grade in a year when the offense had one of the most productive seasons in school history. The performance landed the Lawton native on the American Football Coaches Association's first team All-America squad.

Brown had 127 knockdowns and ran his string of consecutive starts to 28 during the season.

2004 & 2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ MARK CLAYTON ★ WR

Noted as one of the great stories of progress in OU history, Mark Clayton went from struggling to bench press 135 pounds in his first workout to twice being named an All-American. By the time his career was over, he held virtually every Sooners receiving record and was widely regarded as the best to ever play the position at the school.

After a wildly successful junior season, Clayton's numbers dipped somewhat as a senior, but that was attributable to an improved running game and a deeper receiving corps. He still led OU in receptions and yards and was named to the AFCA All-America team. Moreover, when punt returner Antonio Perkins was injured, Clayton added that role and took back one for a touchdown at OSU. As a junior, Clayton built a reputation as perhaps the most elusive receiver in the nation with 533 yards after catch (YAC). He set OU standards with 83 receptions for 1,425 yards and broke the school mark for receiving yards in a game with 190 against Texas.

2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ ANTONIO PERKINS ★ RS

Antonio Perkins became the nation's most feared punt returner by rewriting the NCAA record book during his junior season. He set an NCAA mark with four returns for touchdowns on the season, including an NCAA record three against UCLA.

He also set an NCAA mark with 277 punt return yards against the Bruins. His other touchdown return, which tied the NCAA career mark at seven, came against Missouri. The returns were spectacular too, with lengths of 84, 74 and 65 against UCLA and 65 against Missouri.

Perkins, who also started every game at cornerback and had two interceptions on the season, finished No. 20 in the nation in return average, but that figure was diluted by the fact that his 53 attempts out-distanced the rest of the country's returners by at least eight.

2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ DERRICK STRAIT ★ CB

Derrick Strait duplicated former OU great Roy Williams by winning the Nagurski (best defensive player) and Thorpe (best defensive back) Awards in 2003. Strait earned consensus All-American and All-Big 12 honors as a senior. He was named AP Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

Strait set school records for starts (53), career interception return yards (397) and passes broken up (53). The Austin native ignited Oklahoma's 65-13 win over Texas in 2003 with a season-high 11 tackles, an interception, a 30-yard return, two fumble recoveries and three pass deflections against the Longhorns. Strait was a Thorpe Award semifinalist and consensus first team All-Big 12 selection in 2002.

He started every game at corner and tied for the OU lead with six interceptions. He contributed immediately as a redshirt freshman and was named Big 12 Conference Defensive Newcomer of the Year in Oklahoma's 2000 National Championship season.

2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ JASON WHITE ★ QB

From two reconstructive knee surgeries in successive years to consensus All-American. That was the out-of-the-blue story for Jason White, who wasn't even announced as the team's starter until the summer before the 2003 season. He posted mind-boggling numbers, the most impressive of which were the 40 touchdowns and just 10 interceptions.

White proved particularly adept at completing the long ball and set a school season record with 17 hookups of 40 or more yards. He completed 50 percent or more of his passes in all but two games and was over 60 percent nine times, including 16-of-21 against Texas and 16-of-18 vs. Texas A&M. He fired five TD strikes against both Iowa State and A&M and had a career-high 394 passing yards against Texas Tech.

2003 & 2002 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ TOMMIE HARRIS ★ DT

Tommie Harris rose to the pinnacle of his position in his junior season, which would be his last at OU. He departed for the NFL after just three years in Norman. As a junior, he continued to rocket into opposing backfields with his uncanny quickness. Harris had 10 tackles for loss and 19 quarterback hurries.

After finishing as a finalist for the Lombardi Award one year earlier, he won the coveted piece of hardware in his final Sooner season. He also was one of four finalists for the Nagurski Award, which went to teammate Derrick Strait. Harris' sophomore season was impressive despite an injury. Slowed all by a groin pull suffered in August, Harris still faced regular double teams.

He was named to three All-America squads and was named a finalist for the Bednarik Award. He was the 14th overall selection in the 2004 draft by the Chicago Bears.

2002 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ BRANDON EVERAGE ★ FS

Six interceptions, with 107 yards in returns, would indicate that Everage understood the centerfield nature of his position. The 94 tackles, third-highest on the team, speak to the linebacker-like mentality with which the Oklahoma free safety played. It was that combination of abilities that landed Everage on the All-America rolls.

Everage recorded 60 tackles in 2003 (44 solo) including four for loss and one sack. He also nabbed one interception with four passes broken up.

2003 & 2002 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ TEDDY LEHMAN ★ LB

Determining the greatest linebacker in OU history is a tough chore. With Teddy Lehman in the mix, determining the fastest is much easier. That speed, which made him an outstanding high school sprinter, set the Sooner backer apart from his peers. He capped a brilliant career by winning the Butkus and Bednarik Awards after finishing as a finalist for each just one year earlier. His ability to get from sideline to sideline caught a lot of attention ... and ball carriers. As a senior, he had 117 tackles, including 19 for 47 yards in losses.

As a junior, Lehman logged 112 tackles, including 17 for loss. He also had two interceptions, which went for 51 yards in returns, including one that set up the go-ahead touchdown against Texas. His one-yard return against Texas as a sophomore, the one that came on the back end of a play that saw Roy Williams leap a blocker to disrupt Longhorn QB Chris Simms, is one of the most memorable plays in school history. He was picked in the second round of the 2004 draft by the Detroit Lions.

2001 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ JEFF FERGUSON ★ P

Most punters are known for the length and/or the accuracy of their kicks. Jeff Ferguson was outstanding in both areas. But Ferguson separated himself with athletic ability and intelligent play that made him the complete player at his position. He ended his career as the school record holder for punting average in a career and became just the second player in school history to average more than 40 yards in each of his four seasons. The length of the kicks did not come at the expense of accuracy. Twenty-one of his 71 senior season punts were downed inside the 20-yard line. The thunderous punts and the balls that trickled dead deep in enemy territory will be secondary as time remembers Ferguson's career, though. In his junior season, he made a brilliant play in the national championship game against Florida State, turning a bad snap into a safety rather than an opportunity for the Seminoles to get back into the game.

2001 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ ROY WILLIAMS ★ SS

By the time his career was over, Roy Williams was more feared by offensive opponents and more respected by his defensive peers than any player in the country.

In his final season at Oklahoma, he won the Nagurski Award as the nation's top defender and the Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. He was No. 7 in the Heisman Trophy voting, the highest finish of the year by a non-quarterback.

Williams bypassed his senior season of eligibility to enter the NFL draft, but still left his mark on the OU record book. He was drafted in the first round (No. 8 pick overall) in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

2001 & 2000 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ ROCKY CALMUS ★ LB

Only a few players define their position, but that is precisely what Rocky Calmus meant to college football. As a senior, he won the Dick Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, but also was a finalist for the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards as the nation's best defender and the Lombardi Award as the country's top interior player. His senior year total of 117 tackles vaulted him into Oklahoma's top five career tacklers and capped an incredible career.

As a junior, he was named the toughest player in college football by The Sporting News during the Sooners' 2000 national championship season. OU's all-time leader in tackles for a loss by a linebacker, Calmus was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press and was a finalist for the Butkus Award. A first-team All-Big 12 selection in each of his last three seasons, Calmus led the squad in tackles in each of those years. He was drafted in the third round of the 2002 draft by the Tennessee Titans.

2000 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ JOSH HEUPEL ★ QB

The runner-up for the 2000 Heisman Trophy, Josh Heupel became Oklahoma's first consensus All-America quarterback and the first Sooner QB to earn All-America honors since Jack Mildren in 1971.

As team captain his two years with the Sooners, Heupel is largely credited with turning an offense that statistically ranked as one of the worst in the nation before his arrival into one of the most explosive in the country.

Heupel was named Associated Press Player of the Year, Walter Camp Player of the Year, The Sporting News Player of the Year, CBS Sports Player of the Year, Big 12 Player of the Year and Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year in 2000.

The first-team all-conference selection guided OU to a school-record 13 wins and its seventh national championship. Heupel left with virtually every OU and numerous Big 12 passing records.

2000 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ J.T. THATCHER ★ FS/PR/KR

A standout on both defense and special teams, J.T. Thatcher was named an All-American as both a defensive back and returner. The Mosi Tatupu Special Teams Player of the Year Award winner, Thatcher was one of only seven players to return two or more punts for a touchdown in 2000 and ranked ninth nationally in punt return average. A four-time Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week selection, Thatcher set OU's single-game (160) and single-season (599) records for punt return yards. He also posted the second-highest single-game kickoff return yard total with 150, including a 93-yard return to set up OU's go-ahead touchdown against second-ranked Kansas State. Thatcher was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award and tied school records for interceptions in a game (3) and season (8).

OKLAHOMA ALL-AMERICANS

• During Bob Stoops' tenure, Oklahoma has produced 33 All-Americans. Twenty one of the 33 were consensus picks. Before he arrived in Norman, the Sooners had not produced a consensus All-American since 1988.

• Coach Stoops' 33 All-Americans include 15 on offense, 16 on defense and two on special teams. They played 14 different positions.

• The most total All-Americans in one season came in 1974 and 1975 when eight Sooners were so honored. There were seven during the 2003 season.

• In 2003, Oklahoma set a record when six Sooners were named to the Football Writers' (FWAA) All-America team.

• Oklahoma had at least one All-American in 18 consecutive seasons from 1971-1988. There was also a 14-year stretch from 1946-1959.

• Three sets of brothers have been All-Americans at OU: Lee Roy, Dewey and Lucious Selmon all earned the honor as did Steve and Tinker Owens and Buddy and Kurt Burris.

• Seven Sooner All-Americans went on to serve as assistant coaches at OU: Leon Cross, Eddie Crowder, Frank "Pop" Ivy, Claude Reeds, J.D. Roberts, Lucious Selmon and Jackie Shipp.

OKLAHOMA AND THE NFL DRAFT

Including the seven Sooners selected in 2012, OU has had 357 players picked all-time in the NFL Draft. Forty-two of those players were taken in the first round including three overall No. 1 picks: quarterback Sam Bradford in 2010, running back Billy Sims in 1980 and defensive end Lee Roy Selmon in 1976. All-America linebacker Brian Bosworth was the No. 1 pick in the 1987 supplemental draft by Seattle.

RECENT SOONERS PICKED EARLY

With four first round picks in the 2010 NFL Draft, Oklahoma has now supplied first-round selections for seven of the past 11 drafts. Minnesota used its first pick on Adrian Peterson in 2007. Davin Joseph was picked in the opening round by Tampa Bay in 2006. Jammal Brown and Mark Clayton were drafted in the first round in 2005. Tommie Harris went to Chicago in 2004, Andre Woolfolk was selected by Tennessee in 2003 and Roy Williams went to Dallas in 2002.

MOST FIRST-ROUNDERS

The 2010 NFL Draft marked a first for the Oklahoma program as four Sooners were selected in the first round. Oklahoma has also had two seasons with three players selected in the first round: 1970 and 1976. The 1970 draft featured Steve Zabel picked No. 6, Jim Files No. 13 and Steve Owens No. 19. In 1976, Lee Roy Selmon was selected No. 1 overall and Joe Washington No. 4 with Billy Brooks as the 11th overall pick.

WHICH TEAMS HAVE DRAFTED THE MOST SOONERS?

Several teams, for one reason or another, have historically picked Sooners in the NFL Draft. Only one team, the Houston Texans, has never drafted a Sooner:

|                               |    |

PRENTICE GAUTT CENTER

64 NATIONAL AWARD WINNERS

153 ALL-AMERICANS

27 BOWL CHAMPIONSHIPS

43 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

7 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Prentice Gautt Academic Center provides student-athletes with a modern, state-of-the-art academic support facility that promotes excellence. The environment encourages a collaboration between staff members and student-athletes. In addition, it is highly conducive to learning in all areas of students' academic endeavors and features eight learning centers.

Located on the second and third floors in the north end of Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, the Academic Center houses Academic Counseling Offices, Computer Center, Learning and Skill Development Centers for reading, study skills, math, foreign languages, career, communication, learning enhancement and study areas.

Academic Advising

Academic Advising Services, considered a campus-advising unit, is conveniently located within the center. The athletics department employs seven professional full-time advisors/counselors who are here to help student-athletes through the educational process.

It is important that student-athletes utilize their services. The advisors will assist student-athletes with planning their class schedule and deciding on a degree program that will suit their needs. In addition, they can help student-athletes with career planning, setting academic goals, academic support strategies and personal counseling.

Kerr Sooner Career Center

Whether student-athletes are freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors or alumni, they will benefit from the services of the Kerr Sooner Career Center. It provides a system of services that educates and guides students through the career development process.

The Career Center is dedicated to helping student-athletes make the transition from college to career by developing an individualized career plan. Opportunities are provided for student-athletes to gain the knowledge and skills necessary for resume writing and interviewing techniques. The center is also linked to the OU Career Services on campus, which offers effective job-hunting skills, on-line resume services and training and career resources.

Kerr Foundation Computer Center

In the 21st century, computers have become an integral part of the learning experience. Students need access to computers and their resources almost daily. The Athletics Department provides each student with the equipment and support necessary to succeed.

The computer center has more than 200 computers, and is available exclusively to OU's student-athletes. This ensures that they will never go without computer access.

Laptop computers are available for checkout when the Computer Center is closed. The laptop program is very important in helping OU's student-athletes stay on top of their schoolwork when traveling.

Group training is available for all new student-athletes during the first week of supervised study. This helps familiarize each student-athlete with the department's resources and procedures. Individual training sessions are available to each student upon request and lab technicians are always on hand to help.

The Athletic Computer Center has been a model for other universities around the country. Upgrades are scheduled annually, along with a face lift for the entire facility. A deep commitment from the Athletics Department ensures that the excellence in the Computer Center will continue for a long time.

Communications Center

The academic center focuses on developing communication and public speaking skills for student-athletes. This state of the art center, coordinated by a broadcast professional, offers training to enhance communication skills in order to prepare student-athletes for media interaction as well as personal and professional interactions.

Kerr Foundation Foreign Language Center

To assist student-athletes in speaking, listening, reading and writing in other languages, the Kerr Foundation Foreign Language Center offers a multi-media environment that provides instruction in all foreign languages and in English as a second language.

On an individual basis, student-athletes have the option of working with computers, audio-visual equipment and tutors in order to enhance their language experience.

Learning Enhancement Center

Freshman and transfer student-athletes are provided a Learning Specialist to help with the transition to the university setting. The program is designed to help student-athletes develop useful study techniques, improve problem solving strategies and emphasize the importance of time management.

Math Center

If performing math functions is a problem, the solution is the Math Center. As a supplement to class instruction, the Math Center provides all levels of math computations, concepts and problems to help student-athletes review course material and offers personal and group tutoring sessions.

Reading and Study Skills Center

If student-athletes have trouble with assigned textbook readings or studying, the Reading and Study Skills Center can help. It provides student-athletes with college reading strategies and individualized instruction to help plan, implement, monitor and evaluate reading assignments. The center has received certification by the College Reading and Learning Association.

Thompson Writing Center

Because learning and writing are essential life-long skills which can always be strengthened, the Thompson Writing Center offers personalized instruction to student-athletes who seek assistance in basic writing strategies and developing proofreading skills.

The goal is to help student-athletes develop the strategies they need to be successful by encouraging the use of the center for all facets of the learning and writing processes encountered in college.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

DAVID &amp; MOLLY SHI BOREN

David L. Boren

13th President, The University of Oklahoma

David L. Boren, who has served Oklahoma as governor and U.S. senator, became the thirteenth president of the University of Oklahoma in November 1994. He is the first person in state history to have served in all three positions.

Boren is widely respected for his academic credentials, his longtime support of education, and for his distinguished political career as a reformer of the American political system. A graduate of Yale University in 1963, Boren majored in American history, graduated in the top one percent of his class and was elected Phi Beta Kappa. He was selected as a Rhodes Scholar and earned a master's degree in politics, philosophy and economics from Oxford University, England, in 1965.

In 1968, he received a law degree from the University of Oklahoma College of Law, where he was on the Law Review, elected to the Order of the Coif, and won the Bledsoe Prize as the outstanding graduate by a vote of the faculty.

As Oklahoma's governor from 1974 through 1978, Boren promoted key educational initiatives that have had an enduring impact on Oklahoma. Established during his tenure were the Oklahoma Arts Institute, the Scholar-Leadership Enrichment Program, and the Oklahoma Physicians Manpower Training Program, which provides scholarships for medical students and medical personnel who commit to practice in underserved rural areas. Also, the first state funding for Gifted and Talented classes was provided in 1976 and, from 1976 through 1978, Oklahoma ranked first among all states in the percentage increases of funding for higher education.

One of Boren's most far-reaching projects in promoting quality education at all levels is the Oklahoma Foundation for Excellence, which he founded in 1985. The foundation recognizes outstanding public school students and teachers and helps establish private local foundations to help give academic endowment grants to local public schools. As a senator, he was the author of the National Security Education Act in 1992, which provides scholarships for study abroad and for learning additional languages, as well as legislation to restore the tax deductibility of gifts of appreciated property to universities in 1993.

Boren, also a former state legislator, spent nearly three decades in elective politics before becoming the president of the University of Oklahoma. Boren was the youngest governor in the nation when he served from 1974 to 1978. Known as a reformer, Boren campaigned with a broom as his symbol. During his term, he instituted many progressive programs, including conflict-of-interest rules, campaign-financing disclosure, stronger open meeting laws for public bodies, more competitive bidding on state government contracts, and reform of the state's prison system, including expanded education programs for first-time offenders and the largest expansion of the work-release program in state history.

During his time in the U.S. Senate from 1979 to 1994, Boren served on the Senate Finance and Agriculture Committees and was the longest-serving chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. From his days as a state legislator and governor of Oklahoma to Washington, Boren carried a commitment to reform, leading numerous efforts to make government work better for American citizens. As chairman of the Senate Intelligence Committee, he strengthened oversight of secret government programs and reformed the procedures for Presidential notice of such programs to Congress.

For more than 10 years, he led the fight for congressional campaign finance reform and for legislation discouraging administration and congressional staff from cashing in on government experience and contacts by becoming lobbyists. In addition, he introduced legislation seeking to limit gifts and travel subsidies that government workers, including members of Congress, can receive from lobbyists.

Boren also chaired the special 1992-93 Joint Committee on the Organization of Congress, which produced proposals to make Congress more efficient and responsive by streamlining congressional bureaucracy, reducing staff sizes and reforming procedures to end legislative gridlock.

Boren left the U.S. Senate in 1994 with an approval rating of 91 percent after being reelected with 83 percent of the vote in 1990, the highest percentage in the nation in a U.S. Senate contest in that election year.

Boren served from 1988 to 1997 as a member of the Yale University Board of Trustees. His university experience also includes four years on the faculty of Oklahoma Baptist University, where he was chairman of the Department of Political Science and chairman of the Division of Social Sciences. In 1993, the American Association of University Professors presented Boren with the Henry Yost Award as Education Advocate of the Year.

In April 2004, Boren received the Mory's Cup from the Mory's Association at Yale University. In making the presentation to Boren it was noted that he was the first Yale graduate in the university's history extending over three centuries to have served as a Governor, U.S. Senator and President of a major university.

Under Boren's leadership, the University of Oklahoma has developed and emerged as a "pacesetter university in American public higher education," with 20 major new programs initiated since his inauguration. They include establishment of the Honors College, the Charles M. Russell Center for the Study of Art of the American West, a new expository writing program for freshmen modeled on the program at Harvard, an interdisciplinary religious studies program, the Artist-in-Residence Program, the International Programs Center, and the Faculty-in-Residence Program putting faculty family apartments in student residence halls. The Retired Professors Program has been started, bringing 50 retired full professors back to the University to teach freshmen.

The number of new facilities started or completed on the campus during the Boren years has matched the explosion in new programs. Since 1994, almost $1 billion in construction projects have been completed or are under way on OU's three campuses. Among the largest of the recent projects are the $18.7 million renovation and expansion of historic Holmberg Hall, home of music and dance programs; the $67 million National Weather Center; the $19 million addition to the Michael F. Price College of Business; the $17 million Gaylord Hall for journalism and mass communication; the $27 million Stephenson Research and Technology Center; and the $83.5 million stadium project. The Health Sciences Center has a new Student Union, and the new $24 million Stanton L. Young Biomedical Research Center.

Presidential Travel Scholarships, students from 111 countries on campus, more reciprocal international exchange agreements than any other university and the new International Programs Center are all making OU more international. The new Honors College helps to assure that no students need to leave Oklahoma to find an educational experience to match their potential.

In 1995, Boren launched the "Reach for Excellence" fundraising campaign with a five-year goal of $200 million, which was twice as large as any fundraising drive in Oklahoma history. The drive exceeded $500 million, raising OU into the top 15 public universities in the United States in private endowment per capita. Since 1994, endowed professorships have more than quadrupled and the OU donor base has grown from 18,000 to more than 107,000 friends and alumni. During the first 10 years of Boren's tenure over $1 billion in private gifts were donated to the university.

Above all, the Boren years have been marked by an emphasis on putting students first. There is not a university president in the country that is more committed to students as his number one priority. He teaches a freshman-level course in political science each semester and is one of the few presidents of major universities to teach.

Boren is married to Molly Shi Boren, a former judge and English teacher. Mrs. Boren is President Emeritus of the Oklahoma Arts Institute, which provides education programs in nine arts disciplines for high school students from across the state who are gifted in the arts. Molly Boren has two degrees from the University of Oklahoma, a master's degree in English and a Juris Doctorate from the OU College of Law. A native of Seminole, Boren has two children, Carrie Christine Boren, an Episcopal minister, and David Daniel Boren, a member of the United States Congress from Oklahoma. Devoting much of his life to public service, Boren drew from the example of his parents, the late Congressman Lyle H. Boren and Christine Boren.

Joe Castiglione

Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics Programs and Director of Athletics, The University of Oklahoma

Renaissance – A rebirth or renewal

The word "renaissance" has often been used to describe the University of Oklahoma since the arrival of David L. Boren as its 13th president. It's no coincidence then that the same term could be used to describe the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and its leader, Joe Castiglione. Just as Boren has transformed the university community that the department is an integral part of, Castiglione, with the support of Boren and OU's Board of Regents, has done the same thing with the athletics department, easily one of the most recognized representatives of the state's flagship for higher education.

A department with a long tradition of excellence, there are some who would argue that the past 14 years represent the best of the best. With seven national championships and 49 conference titles, including five in the 2011-12 academic year, produced in his tenure, it would be hard to dispute that. A place where competitive dreams come true and academic goals are the expectations, not the exceptions, has been created at OU. Through his leadership and the support of the University's administration, there is a department-wide commitment, involving student-athletes, coaches and staff, to that standard.

The 11th director of athletics at OU, Castiglione arrived on the Sooner campus in 1998 and what he found was nothing like what you would see today. He made some big changes, and, in the process, created a team of administrators, coaches and support staff who have built a climate that pursues ambitious, if not, lofty goals, high standards and a commitment to ethical behavior that is second to none.

The emphasis has been and will always be on OU's nearly 600 student-athletes who have flourished in the atmosphere, creating new levels of excellence in competition and in the classroom only to raise the bar in succeeding years. Their performances enhance the belief shared by Castiglione, the department's staff and the university family that the best is yet to come.

Proof of the overall excellence of the program is demonstrated by the annual Learfield Director's Cup rankings. A runner-up finish by the men's gymnastics and softball teams helped OU continue its top 15 streak as the Sooners finished 14th in the 2011-12 standings. The Sooners broke into the top 10 for the first time in school history at the conclusion of the 2010-11 academic year after finishing 12th in 2009-10. That performance came after the department finished in the top 30 in nine of the previous 11 years, a sustained pattern of excellence not seen before in the history of one of the nation's premier intercollegiate athletics departments.

For Castiglione, though, it's not just about the championships and trophies. The victories that he celebrates with his Sooners include graduation rates that continue to climb, record-setting grade point averages and academic honors. The true measure of achievement for Castiglione and, by extension, the department's coaches and staff, is measured in the success of the student-athletes in relation to the department's mission statement "Inspiring champions today ... Preparing leaders for tomorrow"

Since arriving at OU in 1998 after an outstanding administrative career at Missouri, Castiglione has insisted that daily and long-term decisions be made in a financially responsible manner. The result of that commitment has helped the department close the books in the black in each of the last 14 years, making it one of the few Division I programs which remain totally self-sustaining. His understanding of how the department fits into the University's academic mission led to a decision to increase the direct support provided by the department on an annual basis to $5 million dollars. Through direct and indirect support, OU Athletics, under Castiglione's leadership, provides more than $8 million annually to OU's Academics Budget. Facility improvement and construction has been carried out at a record pace and Castiglione takes pride to point out that those improvements have all been paid for with private money.

Castiglione is quick to give full credit to the student-athletes and coaches, the staff, OU President David L. Boren, the OU Board of Regents, the donors and the fans for the success experienced during his tenure. It was that commitment to a team approach emphasis that was one of the many qualities that the search committee recognized when they recommended Castiglione to university administration in 1998.

In recognition of the performance of OU's teams on the field and in the classroom, of the fiscal stability created during his tenure, the dramatic increases in donor giving, facility construction and renovations, and the cutting-edge programs that the department has begun during his tenure, Castiglione was named National Athletic Director of the Year in May 2009 by the Sports Business Journal.

That award was one of several earned by Castiglione and the department. The 2007 PRISM Award winner, presented by the School of Sports Management at the University of Massachusetts, OU was just the second Division I winner and all of the programs recognized by the selection panel were started under Castiglione's leadership with the full support of university administration.

His peers have honored him for the department's achievements as well. In October 2004, the Bobby Dodd Foundation named him Athletics Director of the Year. In 2003, he was inducted into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators Hall of Fame. In June 2001, he received the General Robert R. Neyland Athletic Director Award for lifetime achievement from the All-American Football Foundation. The National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) named him Central Region AD of the Year in 2000.

The achievement that may bring him the most pride, though, came in May 2007 when he completed a master's of education degree from OU. To understand the need for education and lifelong learning, OU's student-athletes just have to look at their AD who started and completed his master's degree while running the department and maintaining his priorities to his family. He quickly put his experience to use as an adjunct professor in the College of Education, teaching graduate classes in Marketing, Development and Leadership in Higher Education. He was recently named to the Jeannine Rainbolt College of Education Board of Advocates.

Castiglione was instrumental in the athletics department's major campaign, Great Expectations: The Campaign For Sooner Sports. The largest fund-raising effort in OU athletics history included projects that impact each of OU's 21 sports and has become a national model for intercollegiate athletics. The campaign ended three years later with more than $125 million raised and that figure has grown to more than $330 million since then as funds continue to be raised for facility improvements, including the recently announced $75 million Sooner Student Housing Center, and scholarship endowments.

Hired on April 30, 1998, Castiglione joined the Sooner family after serving as athletics director at Missouri. In his 17-year career with the Tigers, Castiglione, who was named director of athletics at Missouri on Dec. 15, 1993, was credited with rebuilding sports programs, hiring outstanding coaches, implementing an innovative master plan for facilities, inspiring record-setting increases in fund-raising and balancing the budget in each of his five years as athletics director.

A 1979 Maryland graduate, Castiglione received the University's Distinguished Alumnus Award in April 2007. He began his career as the sports promotions director at Rice. He then worked a year as director of athletic fund-raising at Georgetown before being hired in 1981 at Missouri as director of communications and marketing.

His commitment to the success of student-athletes has gone beyond the Norman campus and he has served at the national and conference level. He was recently named to the United States Olympic Committee Athlete Career and Education Strategic Working Group. He serves on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee, filling a term that ends following the 2012-2013 season. He chaired the NCAA's Football Academic Progress Rate (APR) Working Group and is currently serving on the Gatorade Collegiate Advisory Board, the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Board of Directors and the NCAA Bowl Licensing Committee.

He served three terms as the chair of the Big 12 Board of Athletics Directors and is a past president of both the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and NACDA. He served a four-year term on the NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet and the NCAA Baseball Committee and is a past member of the NCAA Football Special Events Certification Committee. He recently served on the NCAA Diversity Leadership Strategic Planning Committee and the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Discussion Group. He is currently serving on the NCAA Working Group on Collegiate Model-Rules Committee. A former member of the Phi Delta Theta Foundation Board of Trustees, he is a highly requested speaker at annual conventions and continuing education institutes. In November 2011, he was named to the Broward County (Fla.) Sports Hall of Fame.

His involvement in the local community has led to service with civic clubs, churches and charities, including the United Way of Norman. Castiglione recently served his third term as OU's campus co-chair, which resulted in the highest recorded contributions ever by faculty, staff and students to the United Way of Norman's annual campaign.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Castiglione is married to the former Kristen Bartel, a 1990 graduate of the University of Missouri. They are the parents of two sons, Joseph Robert, Jr. and Jonathan Edmund.

| OU ATHLETICS DEPARTMENTThe mission of the University of Oklahoma Athletics Department is to inspire champions today and prepare leaders for tomorrow by providing an excellent environment to enable student-athletes to achieve their highest academic, athletic and personal aspirations.Core Values <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Integrity</li> <li>• Passion for Excellence</li> <li>• Commitment</li> <li>• Respect &amp; Responsibility for Self &amp; Others</li> <li>• Appreciation for and Encouragement of Gender &amp; Cultural Diversity</li> </ul> PhilosophyThe University of Oklahoma Athletics Department promotes excellence in athletics without compromising excellence in academics or integrity in its commitment to rules or conduct. Student-athletes are encouraged by the coaching and administrative staff to maintain a balance between athletics, academics, and the social aspects of college.It is believed that athletic participation gives an added dimension to the student's overall college experience and provides an opportunity for social, moral, emotional, and cultural growth and development.The athletic programs strive to create traits that once acquired will carry over and benefit student-athletes in their personal and professional endeavors. The University of Oklahoma maintains a tradition of excellence in intercollegiate sports.The Athletics Department continues to uphold this tradition by striving to make each athletic team and individual of championship caliber. Its staff members work to instill in student-athletes an appreciation for hard work, perseverance, and pride in accomplishment. Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is one of America's most recognized college football cathedrals. Situated on the east side of the Norman campus, this historical facility is the largest sports arena in the state and, following its recent expansion, now ranks among the 15 largest on-campus facilities in the nation.

Memorial Stadium's rich heritage has not hindered its evolution, a never-ending growth fueled by the football program's overwhelming popularity. Almost since its inception, the stadium has been a work in progress. That fact holds true today. Using bond money and generous contributions, the stadium has recently undergone a number of changes.

Prior to the 2009 season, Switzer Center additions and renovations were completed in Barry Switzer Center. The players locker room was expanded and remodeled while a 950-square foot hydrotherapy area and a new 4,000-square foot Red Room with seating for 211 were built.

The most major of those was a $4.5 million venture that added a state of the art 3,689 square feet HD video board atop the south endzone in 2008.

The summer of 2003 saw a venture that added 8,000 seats including 27 suites on the stadium's east side, bringing the total number of suites to 63. At the same time, the press box was remodeled and outfitted with several state of the art features. Another phase of that project stretched into 2004 when renovations to the Santee Lounge, restroom and concessions facilities and a new brick facade on the west side were completed.

In the two years prior to the stadium upgrade and expansion, renovations were completed in the coaches' offices, locker rooms, sports medicine and weight training facilities.

In 1921, University of Oklahoma students started a movement for construction of a student union. By 1925, the idea had grown to include a combined football stadium/student union.

In the original architect's drawings, the north end of the proposed structure was strikingly similar to the present Oklahoma Memorial Union, which eventually was constructed separately when head coach Bennie Owen suggested it would be best to raise funds for a union and a stadium.

The first game played at the site took place Oct. 20, 1923 (a 63-7 win over Washington, Mo.), before the stadium/union plan got under way. The field was named Owen Field after Owen, who became a charter member of the National Football Hall of Fame.

In 1925, the first contest was played in front of the new stands on the west side of the field. The 16,000-seat Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, named in honor of University personnel who died in World War I, was erected at a cost of approximately $293,000.

Stands on the east side of the stadium were added prior to the 1929 season. That addition increased the seating capacity to 32,000, where it stood for 20 years.

HISTORY

In 1949, OU president George L. Cross pushed for expansion and the result was a six-foot lowering of the old playing surface and the elimination of a running track that surrounded the playing area.

The changes produced 7,000 new ringside seats and brought capacity to 55,000. The north end of the stadium also was enclosed. In 1957, green grandstand bleachers were added to the south end of the field, enabling the stadium to hold 61,836 fans.

Eighteen years later came the addition of the upper deck and new press box. Another 8,436 seats were added at a cost of $5,726,345. Capacity for the 1975 National Championship season was 71,187. Before the 1980 season, the old green bleachers were replaced with the new south end zone facility. In addition to improved seating, the complex included coaches' offices, the weight room, meeting rooms, a training room, the equipment room and two locker rooms. The addition brought the stadium capacity to 75,004. Capacity was decreased to 72,765 prior to the 1998 season to provide more wheelchair seating.

In July, 1970 the original natural grass surface was removed and artificial turf was installed. That tartan turf was replaced with super turf before the 1981 season. Owen Field returned to grass in 1994.

A Stadium Master Plan was approved by the OU Board of Regents in June 1994. Construction of nine west side suites began in April 1995 and was completed that year. The suites are leased annually. Eight of the suites seat 12 and the President's suite seats 24.

Subsequent improvements included the installation of stadium lights to allow night games, a new scoreboard and a video screen.

The Barry Switzer Center, named after the former OU head football coach, opened in April 1999. The complex includes a sports medicine facility with the latest equipment and technology to better accommodate OU's student-athletes; the Robin Siegfried and Family Strength and Conditioning Facility, which can accommodate more than 400 athletes; new locker rooms; new coaches offices; the Anderson All-American Plaza and the OU Touchdown Club Legends Lobby. The Legends Lobby, which underwent a $1 million upgrade in the summer of 2004, features some of OU's finest moments, most legendary figures and rare memorabilia.
